

Eden Mills

Three deaths sadden residents of community

by Mrs. W. MacDougall Sympathy is extended to the Barden Family in the loss of a dear aunt, Mrs. Charles (Lida) Armstrong of Guelph. Mrs. Armstrong was buried in Eden Mills Cemetery on Wednesday. Mrs. Ross Campbell of Sundridge was home to attend the service.

Our condolences also to Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Montgomery in the loss of Vince's brother in Fergus.

Five homes underway

1979 housing starts in Rockwood are springing ahead. Already five new homes are under construction, with three more proposed for the near future, according to building official John Salmon. To date, two new homes are slated to be erected in the township.

heart attack while at a dance in Dundas Saturday night. Clarence just retired from work last year. He was an active member of the Presbyterian Church and following in his father's footsteps, had been an elder for many years. He was also a valued member of Eden Mills Cemetery Board. Heartfelt sympathy goes out to Mrs. Ramsey and family in their loss of a dear husband and father.

The Brownies held a workshop at their meeting and made some good chocolates, crafts and an egg tree for decoration for their Spring Spree March 31. Mrs. George Campbell of Sundridge was home for a visit and while here was guest of honor at a baby shower for son Cort, which was hosted by her cousin Mrs. Debbie Marchmont of Guelph. Mrs. William and James Gilbertson recently attended a dinner birthday party for Mrs. Isabel Colvert and Miss Shirley Gilbertson at the home of Mrs. Herb Gilbertson in Guelph. The Presbyterian Youth Group hosted a potluck dinner for two residents of the Guelph Correctional Centre and their assistant chaplain. Many thanks go to Mrs. Anna Markell and committee for a most successful and happy St. Patrick's Day Pub Night in the hall. The stage was decorated in an old Irish Pub atmosphere. The two bartenders wore green vests, bow ties, arm bands, hats and a big shamrock on their white apron. The entertainment was: Irish reords for dancing; a barbershop quartet from Guelph; guitar music by Ed Thatcher of Rockwood; a skit by the Marshall family and a lively sing-a-long led by Betty Marshall and Irish Margie Blacklock. This was topped off with a hot lunch of Irish stew and tea biscuits. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Frankow and Adam of Orland Park, Illinois, spent the weekend with Joanne's parents, Mr.

and Mrs. Eric Lockett. The Chamberlains, Aitkens and Lowries squeezed in another weekend of snow-mobbing at Orr Lake.

African Lion Safari

On Hwy 8 between Hamilton & Cambridge - Rockton, Ont. (519) 623 2620

Around Acton is eighty minutes! Local resident Al Russel describes himself as a balloon nut and surprised Nassagaweya residents early Saturday as he silently flew above the treetops. With him on the pleasure flight was Canadian ballooning champion Larry Horak (who owned this balloon) and neophyte balloonist Ken Penfold. Mr. Russel is expecting his own balloon to be delivered to his Nassagaweya home in a couple of weeks.

Parking worries council

Eramosa Council agreed there is a place for a gallery for art and artifacts within Rockwood, however the applicant's proposed location is a problem.

Pat Smith sought a minor variance, proposing to create a gallery, glassing in the front verandah of his 370 Main St. South home.

Council sited the residential zoning and the fact that the property is located on a hill on the main highway as reasons for refusal. They questioned the safety for parking.

Councillor John McLeod abstained from the split vote, declaring conflict of interest.

Bylaw amended

The Eramosa water and sewer frontage bylaw will be amended—the charge will be based on a minimum frontage charge of 50 feet, council decided after lengthy discussion.
