

Jane Sewell's project on "Solar Heat" took first spot at the McKenzie-Smith Science Fair last week in the school gym.

Ospringle

Needlers have needlepoint lesson

Members of the Ospringle Ladies Aid are learning the art of macramé. Mrs. Bruce W. Smith, the hostess at the March meeting, demonstrated how to make pot hangers, and they got off to a good start.

The first part of the meeting was the Devotional with the eight ladies taking part in reading the 103rd psalm, followed by the hymn "Love Divine, All Love Excelling".

Mrs. Ralph Sinclair took charge of the study with the topic on Prayer, then they all joined hands in group prayer and expressed thanks for their blessings, ending in the Lord's Prayer.

A number of Irish songs were sung accompanied by Mrs. Byron Bruce on the piano. Mrs. Bruce was the winner of the Irish Shamrock contest.

Home Economist Miss Jane Pengilly was a guest at the March 8 meeting of the Ospringle Knotty Needlers, at the home of Debbie Wagener. The girls were blocking the samplers and finishing up stitches.

The next meeting was generally a work meeting at the home of Karen McKinnon. The record books will now have to be brought up to date.

Kristina Pederson is the president of the Mimosa Nifty Needlers. At the end of the sixth meeting they had learned all the stitches and are now concentrating on finishing their needlepoint. Mimosa has six girls in the club: Kathy Adams, Carol Gustaw, Betty Jo Hurd, Linda Moore, Kristina Pederson, and Leanne Taylor. Miss Pengilly will be a guest at their next meeting.

A number of school students from Ospringle will be taking part in the Rotary Skate-a-thon in Acton. They are now busy getting sponsors.

Ospringle pupils took part in the floor hockey tournament at Rockwood school on Thursday. Brisbane had the champion team, and a good day was reported.

As a special treat for the end of the winter term, school pupils were shown a film on Friday, "The Vanishing Wilderness". School will resume on Monday, March 26, after the winter break.

On March 30 the First Ospringle Scout troop will be going to see the world's trickiest basketball team, the Harlem Globe Trotters. They will be playing at Maple Leaf Gardens, and tickets cost $5.50.

Paul Stables (left) and Steve Watzek took second place honors at the McKenzie-Smith Science Fair last week with their project on Static and Current Electricity.

The Canadian Cancer Society urges all Canadians to have a regular medical and dental check-up.

Less money to libraries

Town coffers have to come up with $3,000 less this year for Halton Hills libraries than in 1978.

At the library board's regular meeting Wednesday evening in Acton, head librarian Betsy Cornwell told board members the town was to give them $200,000 as compared to $203,000 last year.

The library having a reserve fund for emergencies, not budgeted for.

Mrs. Cornwell said the board will receive $61,291 from the province, and another $12,000 will come from revenues from the copying machine, overdue fines, etc., in addition to the surplus.

Vice chairman Norm Elliott pointed out that in spite of the cuts made by the town, the libraries would be receiving some $30,000 more this year.

Mrs. Cornwell said they had hoped to put $15,000 in a reserve fund, but that would not be possible this year. Board members asked the librarian if she had explained to the finance committee the surplus was possible because of money not spent in Georgetown.
