

Three shorthanded goals pace Cleaners

A shorthanded goal by Wayne Allan at the 3:39 mark of the second period was the straw that broke the camel's back for Van's Welding as Family Cleaners rolled to a 7-1 win, wrapping up their industrial league semi-final series two games to one.

Van's got the game's first marker but Family came back with two before Wayne Allan's shorthanded goal broke the game open. The Cleaners scored four more unanswered goals, two of those shorthanded efforts, over the final frame.

Van's got on the scoreboard first as Bart Jacobs found the range behind Family netminder Mark Morrison at 2:42 of the opening period. Jim Haggitt assisted on the play.

From that point until the midpoint of the second frame Van's looked as if they may have the stamina to hold on to the lead and record the upset win but an unassisted goal by Rick Henderson at 12:12 gave Family the spark they needed as they took control of the contest. The Henderson goal came only after Van's goaltender Rick Bonnette had been forced to make three or four key stops. The rebounds kept coming out and Henderson tucked it home to tie the count.

Dave Paul gave the Cleaners a lead they would never relinquish at the 9:08 mark of the second period as he found the range with help from Cecil Stuckless.

Family took a three goal lead with teammate Dan Hillier in the penalty box. Wayne Allan fired the goal with Ed Hillier assisting. The goal broke Van's as they became frustrated at their inability to keep the puck moving towards the Family end with any sustained pressure.

Ed Hillier added a second shorthanded goal for Family from brother Dan at the 7:35 mark to put the game out of reach for Van's.

Ed Hillier fired another goal, this one from Wayne Allan, before tempers erupted with 1:59 remaining in the contest.

As a result of the temper flare-up five players were tossed from the contest namely three Cleaners and two Welders.

To add insult to injury

Family came back with two goals from John Snow over the final 1:59.

thanded effort, to give Family a 7-1 victory and one of those a shorthe right to battle Blow Press for the league title.

The league final is slated to begin Sunday night at the community centre with the two teams, Family Cleaners and Blow Press tangling in a best two out of three series. Game time for the contest will be 7 p.m.

Town league tallies

The hockey season is winding down and with only the 'Day of Champions' remaining for Acton Legion Minor hockey teams there has been a battle for the right to play in the championship game.

Novice

A third period goal by Tim Oakley proved to be the difference as Kitchener skated to a 3-2 win over Weston. Doug Neely fired the first Kitchener goal with Tim Oakley adding the second as well as the winner. Kevin Harris and Derek Bottomley scored for Weston with Bottomley, Paul Lanteigne and Chris O'Neil assisting.

Dixie and Oakville tussled in a genuine defensive battle as the two clubs squared off 1-1. Shawn McFadden fired Dixie's lone marker in the first period with Dennis Swinamer tying the count for Oakville in the second.

Brampton had an easy time as they skated to a 6-0 romp over Guelph. Bill Botetzayas fired three for the winners with Dean Lawson, Mike Boulanger and Paul Coverdale adding singles. Jason Heiderman found the scoresheet with two assists while Mike Boulanger, Chris Wilmott, Trevor Preuter and Bill Botetzayas added single helpers.

Atom

There unanswered second period goals by St. Kitts lifted them to a 5-3 win over London in exhibition play. London scored two first period goals as John Coniglio and Chris Cooney found the net but were held off the scoresheet in the second frame and could manage only one, off the stick of Ricky Smith in the third period. Raymond Authier fired St. Kitts' only first period marker. Warren Blain, Jason Stanbridge, and Chris Stewart fired second period goals for St. Kitts with Cyril Nibbs adding an insurance marker in the third.

After a scoreless first period Oshawa rallied for a 4-2 win over Hamilton. Doug Creighton, Tom Turtischer, Dwayne Death and Steve Parker fired the Oshawa goals while Phillip Wedge and David Slaney scored for Hamilton.

Pee-Wee

Bill Morrison's five goal performance was just enough for Tidewater as they scored a 6-5 win over Cleveland. Ted Tidewater added the other Tidewater goal with Morrison drawing an assist. Bruce Sheppard counted three for the losers with Jack Ninabar adding a pair.

A third period goal by Doug Bennett stopped a Rochester shut out of Baltimore. Rochester scored an easy 8-1 win. Jamie Taras, John Towgood, Craig Bottomley and Garnet Trowbridge fired two goals each for the winners. Ted Nessett and Mark Armstrong were the playmakers of the day with a pair of assists each.

Bantam

A two period onslaught by the Aeros produced a 6-1 win as they trounced the Toros. Greg Maltby was the only two-goal scorer for the Aeros with Bob Little, Bob Brouillard, Dan Gibson and Jeff McNabb counting singles as they scored six times over the first two periods. Tom Briggs managed the only Toros goal.

Despite the fact the Oilers line-up had been bolstered, Cougars skated to a 5-4 win in an exhibition contest. Gary White and Paul Nolan were added to the Oiler line-up for the contest to bring the team to full strength. White counted an assist with Nolan adding a goal. Don Thornhill counted two goals for the Oilers with Paul Hudson netting the other. Mike Scott, Malcolm Warhurst, Ted Gunn, Greg Cowan and Rusty Elliott scored the Cougar goals.

In bantam play-off action the Whalers, led by Paul Nolan and Gary White, scored a 4-1 win over the Jets. Nolan fired three goals for the Whalers with White counting a goal and an assist. Mike Cleary also assisted for the Whalers. Chris Lobsinger scored for the Jets only tally.

Paced by three goals from Dean Hughes the Jets scored a 6-2 win in play-off action. Tom McDonough fired two for the winners with Chris Lobsinger adding the other. Chris Hisaki and Lorner McGinn replied for the Toros.

Midget

Detroit showed Vancouver their offensive power in midget exhibition action as they scored a 10-1 win. Dave Mitchell and Derrick Neeley led Detroit with three goals each. Neville Porter added two with Mike Marshall and Rick Lott counting singles. Russell Allen netted the only Vancouver goal.

Four goals by Brent Vickery led the way for Toronto as they scored a 6-4 win over Montreal. Michael McMillan counted the other Toronto goals. Bill Pinsonneault fired two for the losers with Greg Maltby and John Toebes adding singles.

Juvenile

A four-goal first period paced the way for Chicago as they hung over the final two periods to take a 6-5 win from Boston. Trevor Gardiner and Dave McGilloway fired two each for Chicago with Bob Boomer and Terry Winters potting solos. Tom Ryan paced Boston with a pair. Dave Johnson, Rick McNabb and Greg Ivany netted singles.

NOTE—There are no games scheduled for the houseleague on March 24 or 25 due to the Centennial Atom Tournament. See next week's Free Press for "Day of Champions" game times.

Dead aim! Bob Barham of Van's Welding caught Family Cleaner Rick Henderson with a solid elbow as tempers flared during the final game of their industrial play-off series. Family won the game 7-1 to earn the right to advance to the league final. Both Henderson and Barham were later ejected from the game for fighting.

Did you get Unemployment Insurance in 1978?

If so, you have probably received a tax information slip (TP4U) in the mail. You need it for your tax return.

If the slip hasn't arrived, you can apply in person...

If you didn't get a TP4U, go to your local Canada Employment Centre (Unemployment Insurance or Manpower Services). Ask for a request card to apply for a duplicate. Give the completed card, with some identification (like a credit card or driver's license), to the information counter clerk. The clerk will certify and send it off for you. You'll get your duplicate slip in time to file your tax return.

or by mail...

Phone or write your local Canada Employment Centre (Unemployment Insurance or Manpower Services). Ask them to send you a request card to apply for a duplicate. Complete the card and mail it to the address on it, along with a photocopy of identification (something with your name, like a credit card or driver's license). Please don't send original identification documents. You'll get a duplicate in the mail in time for filing your tax return.

If the slip has arrived...

If you did get a TP4U but need a replacement for any reason, use the request card as described above.

If the slip has arrived but you need more information...

If you did get a TP4U and still need an itemized statement, use the request card as described above. However, in this case, send identification only if your address now is different from the one on your TP4U.

The Canadian Human Rights Act requires us to restrict access to personal information about you. This is why we must ask you for identification.
