Cancer canvassers readying for campaign

By Mrs. W. MacDougall
April is Cancer month and Mrs. Fred Rinehart has been busy for several weeks now lining up people for the important task of canvassing this area.

One of the following ladies will be knocking on your door so please treat her with kindness: Mrs. R. (Anna) Markell, Mrs. E. (Betty) Snow, Mrs. E. (Jean) Turowski, Mrs. E. (Irene) McNamara, Mrs. E. (Evelyn) Barden and Mrs. F. (Jean) Rinehart.

The March meeting of the Presbyterian Women was held at the home of Mrs. Eric Lockett. Donations were received from the families of the late Mrs. Charles Armstrong, Clarence Ramsey and William Wilson. There will be the traditional Good Friday Morning Breakfast on April 13 from 8 - 10:30 a.m. New teapots are to be purchased.

Plans were made to cater to a baptism luncheon and to have a booth at an auction sale in May.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Lasby, Cathy and David have been in Des Moines, Iowa, for a few days attending the American Polled Shorthorn Congress.

The weather outside was cold and damp but there was a nice warm feeling when you entered the hall for the Guide, Brownie and Cub tea and bazaar on Saturday.

There was a pretty Easter egg tree on the stage and the tables were decorated with spring flowers. There were draws, crafts, bake table, plants, toys, penny table.

Mrs. J. Gilbertson was hostess at a family dinner party at the hall on Saturday evening. The community club catered to this. Those present were Mrs. J. Gilbertson, Mrs. W. Gilbertson, Mrs. P. Wylie, Mrs. M. Davis, Miss Shirley Gilbertson, Mrs. S. Wilson, Dr. and Mrs. J. Henry, Mr. and Mrs. T. Hamilton and Mr. and Mrs. G. MacDougall.

Sunday morning at the Presbyterian church there was an enjoyable family service of carols, lessons and hymns. Some of the Sunday School children and members read the lessons and Rev. Doehring joined the choir in the special selections of music.

Margaret Anderson was just one of the many lovely models at the Spring Fashion Show Thursday evening at the high school. The evening was sponsored by Gayna Fashions and was ably commented by store owner Doreen Jameson.

Obituary

Clarence Ramsay

A lifelong resident of R.R. 1, Campbellville, Clarence Harold Ramsay died suddenly in Hamilton March 17 at the age of 65.

Mr. Ramsay was born May 16, 1913, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Ramsay. He was born on the family farm in Nassagaweya, where he lived his entire life.

Mr. Ramsay was employed as stationary engineer at St. Joseph's hospital, Guelph for 23 years, until his retirement last year. Since then he has worked there part time. He was an elder at the Eden Mills Presbyterian Church and was on the cemetery board.

Mouse hunting, gardening and snowshoeing were just a few of the outdoor activities enjoyed by Mr. Ramsay. He also liked to fix and repair things around the house and took pride in his hobby of farming.

Rev. Carrie Doehring officiated at the funeral held at Shoemaker Funeral Home, Acton, March 21. Interment was at Eden Mills Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Wm. McDonald, Gordon Blacklock, Wallace Lasby, Ron Burrows, Bert Wright, and Donald McAlpine.

Left to mourn his loss are: his wife Angelina G. Brodie, children John and Betty (Mrs. Ken Brown), both of R.R. 4, Rockwood, Brenda, (Mrs. Sims McPhedran), R.R. 1, Acton, Shirley, Guelph, and Linda and Marjorie, both at home. He is also survived by five grandchildren.

Mr. Ramsay was predeceased by brother George, two years ago, and Edward, at a very young age.

Separate schools up

Halton Separate School Board's budget is expected to be $13.2 million, a 9.5 per cent increase over last year.

The budget is expected to come back to the board for approval Tuesday, March 27.

Obituary

Sandy Patterson

The community was shocked and saddened last week to hear of the death of Sandra Lee Patterson, after a lengthy battle with cancer. She was 23.

Sandra of 128 Wynford Place had been sick for one year before succumbing to the illness in Hamilton General Hospital, March 24.

She was the daughter of Hugh and Marion Patterson, 241 Arthur St. and was born August 31, 1955 in Toronto. She attended Acton high school and was an active member of the Acton Badminton club. She was employed as a banker.

Funeral service was held at Trinity United Church, March 27. Interment was at Fairview Cemetery, with Brendan Irwin, Tim McIntyre, Bob O'Rourke, Steve McIntyre, David Braida, all of Acton, and Bob Rawley, Brampton Bank of Nova Scotia Manager as pallbearers.

Sandra is survived by her parents, Hugh and

Marion, one sister, Nancy, at home and one brother, Jeff, R.R. 4, Rockwood. She is also survived by grandmother Mrs. E. M. Tucker, Toronto.

Mrs. Lambert dies in Guelph

A well known Acton senior citizen, Alice May Lambert, died March 26 in Guelph General Hospital. She was in her 94th year.

Mrs. Lambert was a member of Trinity United Church, and friend of many. She was the wife of the late Nelson Lambert, and mother of Earl, Gordon, Hector, and Harvey Lambert, all of Acton, Dora, (Mrs. Hector Guthrie), Guelph, Melvin, Fort St. John, British Columbia and Leonard, Dartmouth, Nova Scotia. She was also a grandmother to 16 and had 36 great grandchildren.

Besides her husband, she was predeceased by a son, Raymond, one brother Darwin Cripps, and sisters Kate, (Mrs. Richard Leavens) and Isabel (Mrs. Charles Parker).

Rev. Walter Fosbury officiated at the funeral, at Shoemaker Funeral Home, March 28. Interment was at Fairview Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Orwell Johnston, as well as her six sons, Earl, Melvin, Gordon, Hector, Harvey and Leonard. Her three grandsons, Rick, Tony and Shawn Lambert were flower-bearers.

Typewriter taken

A portable typewriter was stolen from the Acton Community Centre this week, according to Halton Regional Police. The theft occurred during a coffee house which was being held in the hall, police say. The investigation is continuing.

A Georgetown area man has been charged by police after he left the scene of an accident in Acton last week.

A Canadian National Railway employee recently reported to police the theft of 30 new railway ties from the railway crossing at Main St. North of Guelph St. in Acton last week.

Police are continuing their investigation into window smashing.

Feb. up

The value of building permits issued in February more than doubled the amount issued in February 1978.

Last month permits totalled $690,307 while a year ago the total was $275,980.

The number of house permits rose sharply last month reaching 18 as opposed to three at the same time last year.
