Organize craft days at WI museum

Mrs. John McNabb presided over the April 3 spring board meeting of the Halton District Women's Institute, in the agricultural office, Milton.

This year's theme being International Year of the Child, Mrs. McNabb read "The Rights of the Child." Board member Mrs. Betty Jefferson brought greetings.

Erland Lee Home Week is June 4 to 8 and she urged branches to increase their donations to reach the objective.

A "Rights of the Child" poster competition is to be delayed until 1980. The FWIO reunion is Aug. 15 at Bingham Park.

October area convention theme is "I am a Canadian" and Halton WI is responsible for the square dance on the Monday evening. All branches were urged to have the booklet "Do You Know?" and a pamphlet explaining WI work.

Gifts were selected to send with Mrs. Jefferson to the FWIC convention in Saskatoon in June.

Mrs. H. Robertson, curator, reported no grants are available for publishing a history book, but she is in contact with Canada Council. Each branch is asked to do a summary of the past few years to add to the history.

Mrs. Robertson was named delegate to the Officers' Conference in May. Plans were finalized for District Annual May 17 in Acton Presbyterian Church, with Bannockburn as host. Competitions this year are in whole wheat bread and a quilt block in original design.

Mrs. L. Andrews reported on the WI hall at the agricultural museum in Kelso. Students are to be guided this year and it will be open from May 14 to the end of October, daily from 10 to 5.

It is hoped to organize craft days, especially on weekends. The Perth District is to be responsible for quilt displays this year. Anyone having a braided mat for the front hall was asked to contact Mrs. Andrews.

Mrs. Patterson presented a new slate of officers. There is no first vice-president or assistant public relations officer yet.

Mrs. G. Campbell gave a bursary report, noting the application deadline is July 30. It was decided not to send delegates to the cultural affairs day planned for Hillcrest Church April 21.

Mrs. McNabb reminded all of the 4-H achievement day May 3 in Drury School at 7:30 p.m. and the Canada Packers quilt display May 23 at the Optimist Hall in Milton, from 2 to 5 and 7 to 9 p.m.

Smiley...

April by itself is bad enough. But to go through 30 days of it huddling under a barrage of political poop is the utmost pits. I agree with the poet. This April will indeed be "the cruellest month."

Halton 4-H begins year

By Fartha May

The first meeting of the Halton 4-H Horse Club for 1979 was held on Apr. 5 at the Agricultural Office in Milton.

The meeting opened with the 4-H pledge led by Kathy Galbraith.

Holly Hurren made some opening remarks and roll call was taken.

A humorous film called "Junior Bronco Busters" was shown.

Following the film the election of club officers was held.

The executive for 1979 is: President Diana Hoyce, Vice President Kathy Galbraith, Secretary, Valerie Scott and Press Reporter Eartha May.

The leaders for this year are Mrs. Allison Amos, Mrs. Glenna Scott and Don Heath.

Club business was discussed. Club scoring was worked out.

Ideas for regular and extra meetings were discussed as well as special projects for this year.

Record books to keep feed and training records on horses were handed out.

A film entitled "Mr. Decathlon" was next on the program. It demonstrated what to look for in a good Quarter Horse.

Following the film, a quiz was given to be taken home and answered. The answers will be discussed at the next month's meeting.

A word puzzle on the parts of a horse to complete were presented.

It was decided the Horse Club achievement day for 1979 will be held at the Milton Fair on Sunday.
