

Curling Club trophy night...

Merchants suffer setback in exhibition opener

Bill Cripps and Jeannette Greenley were unable to accept their trophy for the Monday night mixed, first draw. Other teammates however, were on hand to receive the Adam's Trophy. Left to right, Ina Mellon, Mike Cassidy, presenter, and Karen Shortill.

Brian Moore, Doug Waterfield and Betty Frances were the proud recipients of the Bill Toth Shell Trophy, Tuesday night, mixed, second draw. Bill Toth made the presentation. Eva Murdock was absent.

Earl Steckly, right, was on hand to present the wives of the men's competitive first prize Bank of Montreal trophy. Left to right, Nancy Vidler, (for Pete), Donna Cripps, (for Bill), and Karen Archibald (for Fred). Glen Gray was also absent. The men were all away curling.

Steve Ormsby and Roy Knapton won the Goy Cartage award for men's competitive, second place. Absent are teammates Ken Phillips and Chuck Beaton.

Acton Merchants opened their exhibition season for the 1979 season at Prospect Park on Sunday afternoon suffering a 13-9 loss at the hands of P and C Landscaping of Milton.

Acton employed two line-ups for the contest with each unit playing in half of the eight-inning contest.

Milton scored the first run of the season in the top of the first inning but the Merchant hopefuls came back in the bottom of the inning with a pair of runs as Gary Pickles and Dave Black crossed the plate.

C and P Landscaping added two runs in the second while the Merchants were held scoreless. In the third the visitors crossed the plate with three more runs while their pitchers did the job on the Acton bats.

In the fourth inning Milton extended their lead to 7-2 with a single score before Acton started fighting back. Merchants got runs from Steve Marshall and Gary Wilson to close the gap.

Georgetown Chrysler Raiders season came to a sad ending Thursday night, but it wasn't until over 24 hours later that the OHA champs knew for sure they were finished.

The fifth inning was the big scoring inning for the Merchants as they scored four times as Larry Kistner, Don Richards and Steve Marshall scored on a Bruce MacPherson triple and then McPherson came home on a bad throw.

The teams went scoreless in the sixth inning and C and P Landscaping exploded for four runs in the seventh while holding the Merchant side scoreless to take the exhibition match 13-9.

Merchants are continuing workouts at Prospect Park in anticipation on their May 6 weekend opener in the Georgetown Industrial Fastball League.

Merchants line-up: Steve Townsley, Chris Tennant, Gary Pickles, Terry Masales, Dave Black, Bob Jarrett, Darryl Whitten, Larry Kistner, Ed Hillier, Don Richards, Dan Allen, Steve Marshall, Bruce

MacPherson, Gary Copeland, Gary Wilson, Vince Thornton, Dick Spear, Joe DeForest, Ron Hachey (manager) and Ray Graham (coach).

On Saturday April 21 Acton hosted a Synchronized Swim meet for recreational teams in our area. Teams attending were Kitchener, Cambridge and E.C. Drury School for the Deaf and they competed in figures and sequences.

Acton's team did extremely well. The results are as follows:
Star One Figures, 9 and 10 years, Barbara Lamonthe second, 11 and 12 years, Jody DeVries first.

Star Two Figures, 10 and under, Dana Richardson first, 11 and 12, Helen Staley first.

Star Three Figures, 10 and under, Marla Brillinger first.

Star Four Figures, 12 and under, Kristi Duncan and Lori Fountain second, Katey Wynneck third, 13 and 14 years, Nancy Allan first, 15 and over, Debbie Jones first.

Star Five Figures, 12 and under, Laura Brillinger first, 13 and 14 Linda Kilpatrick second, 15 and over, Karen Glenn first, Caroline Thatcher second, Beth Grein third. Trillium One Figures, 14 and under, Renata Brillinger first. Trillium Two Figures, 14 and under, Renata Brillinger first.

Sequences: Star Four, Nancy Allan second, Star Five, Laura Brillinger first, Beth Grein second, Trillium, Renata Brillinger first.

Our meet was completed with a duet and team routine to music demonstrated by EC Drury. It was indeed an excellent display of synchronization when you consider that they could not hear any of the music yet they swam to the beat. Their Coach had them swim to music as most routines in our competitions are done to music. A tremendous coaching feat and I think everyone enjoyed it very much.

All in all it was a very successful meet and I wish to thank all my judges for their fine efforts. Special thanks to Mrs. Brillinger, Mrs. Fountain, Mrs. Wynneck for giving up their Saturday night to come and help me (Judy Patterson) and to Glen Campbell for his support before and during the meet.
