Vandals have been up to no good at the Presbyterian Church lately. Two weeks ago the dusk to dawn light was broken and the stained glass window over the front door was the target of a gun pellet or stone. This week a window in the chen items were taken. Mrs. T. Bould, Mrs. F. Rinehart and Mrs. H. Link enjoyed a weekend bus trip to Flint, Michigan and the village of Frankenmuth which is famous for its chicken dinner. The ladies went with the Scottish Clan from Guelph.

Douglas and Marnie of Mississauga, and Mr. and Mrs. John Krug of Kitchener were visitors with Mrs. James and Mrs. William Gilbertson. Robert Wright is home for the summer from studies at Lakehead Thunder University.
