

Ballinafad

Good turnout for 101st anniversary

by Winifred Smith
The weather did not cooperate on Sunday for the Anniversary service at the church. There was a fairly good attendance despite the rain.

Two beautiful floral arrangements graced the front of the sanctuary. Special music was provided by Mrs. Eileen McEnery and Mr. Bob Pinkerton. The men's choir, under the direction of Mrs. McEnery sang two beautiful anthems "Bless the Lord, O Ye Lands" and "How Long Has It Been". The Junior choir gave a short but sweet number "The Tender Shepherd." Mr. Pinkerton accompanied the juniors at the piano. Rev. Stiles introduced the guest speaker, Rev. James Moulton.

In his opening remarks, Rev. Moulton said he didn't know whether he was asked to come to preach at this anniversary service or whether he invited himself to come. He said he wasn't totally on strange ground as he and his wife accompanied other married couples from his church and had journeyed to Ballinafad for their annual night out for supper and an evening of fellowship. He went on to say he thought perhaps this occasion of being able to preach at the 101st Anniversary would in a small way show the gratitude of the whole group for the wonderful supper provided by the UCV associated with this church.

His interesting and inspiring sermon was entitled The Church Under the Cross. Most of the congregation stayed for lunch and an hour of fellowship in the basement. Back up in the church a screen had been set up and a film of a portion of last year's hundredth anniversary service was shown. Next Sunday will be Christian Family Sunday, and some of the Sunday School young folk will be participating in the service.

We are happy to welcome back to the village Donna and Paul Metcalfe. They have moved into the new home formerly owned by Mr. and Mrs. Rankin.

Many residents of the community had relatives and friends spend Sunday with them and accompany them to Church for the special anniversary service. Some of those noticed were Mrs. Ruth L'olo with her mother Mrs. Marshall, Mr. Jim Kirkwood with Mr. and Mrs. Archie Dawe, Mr. Dave Lindsay and Mrs. Hattie Price, with the Madills and Mrs. Linstead with son Del and family. Former residents Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Snow, Miss Lydia Snow and her mother Mrs. Phedeta Drouillard were welcome guests at the service among others.

Baseball games are being organized again for the community. This is the month they start, men's, women's and the kids in Burnetts' field. Some help to coach and manage the play for the youngsters would be appreciated.

British jobs

The Association of Student Councils (AOSC) and the National Union of Students (NUS) announced they have 1000 jobs in Britain available this summer for Canadian students over 18 years of age. Under this Student Work Abroad Program (SWAP) the students will participate in a unique cultural and travel experience by working two to six months in hotels throughout Britain.

"The participants will be working in any hotel job ranging from waiter/waitress to night porter to chefs and cooks," hsaid association spokesman Bruce Homer.

Jobs pay between 43 and 63 British Pounds ($100 - $150) per week depending on the nature of the work and the proximity to London.

Applications may be picked up at any campus placement centre or a complete resume indicating preferred job and location may be sent along with $30.00 registration fee to AOSC, 44 St. George Street, Toronto, Ontario M5S 2E4, (416) 979-2406.
