

Golf clinic first of five

Residents who want to try golf to see if it suits their tastes will get a chance for free at a clinic at Georgetown Golf and Country Club next Tuesday evening.

Following up on the success of their recent jogging clinic with Abby Hoffman, A.C.T.I.O.N. has announced a series of five sports clinics beginning with a golf clinic.

New Georgetown golf club pro Ben Smirnov, an experienced golfer, will conduct the clinic. The second clinic deals with tennis and will be held at Acton Tennis Club on May 30 with Ed Serjeantson as instructor. Georgetown's cricket club will host a clinic at Cedarvale on June 6 and there will be a lawn bowling clinic at Georgetown Lawn Bowling Club on Edith Street with Charles Renwick on June 13.

The last clinic is set for June 19 with the topic snookering. This clinic will be at Georgetown Indoor Pool with Ernie Vonpushka instructing. Smirnov, who's been a pro for 10 years now, says the free clinic is for those who are "scared" to try the game and fear it will be costly. People who come out to the one hour clinic will be shown a typical hole, clubs, sample grips and the fundamentals of the sport.

Those who get hooked on golf will be able to join Smirnov's series of four lessons which start May 24. The cost will be $25 and will include one free 18 hole round, free balls and free use of clubs. Topics will include grip, stance, backswing, chipping, putting and for juniors, whose clinics begin in June, golf etiquette. The free clinic starts at 7 p.m. while the next four will be in two groups of 10, from 6 p.m. to 7 p.m. and 7 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Smirnov has come here after two years as a pro in North Bay and eight years of golf work in the Toronto area. He is the reigning Northern Ontario PGA champion. Georgetown's Dave Kemshead is the assistant pro and Paul Stevens will also be assisting Smirnov.

Acton crew default ball hockey match

Halton Hills Ball Hockey League began its third season Sunday but not without problems. Acton's Station Hotel crew showed up with two players for their game with Brampton Knights and so defaulted the match.

League official Brian James said there are no rules governing defaults but said loop brass intends to take steps to make sure incidents of defaults aren't repeated. In games that were played locals Safeco dumped Brampton Cowboys 4-1, Foberts blanked Brampton Vincent 5-0, Brampton IKO clobbered McGibbon Hotel 9-0 and Fortamix edged Brampton Northwood Park 4-3.

In Safeco's win Steve Shomberg paced the attack with a pair of scores and an assist while Mitch O'Brien counted a goal and two aids. Mark Bell also tallied for the winners. Mike McLelland and Al Hachey earned brackets.

Foberts attack was balanced with five different shooters, Ray Peacock, Tim Turner, Paul Allison, Kyle Harkins and Ron Timpson, scoring. Allison, Steve Crossman, Bill Bradley and Bill Fournier collected assists. Al Densmore earned the shutout.

Bill Humphreys was the only thing keeping IKO from going into double figures against McGibbon. He faced 33 shots while his mates managed only six of their own.

Defending champs, Fortamix, got goals from Ian Syme, Doug Pemberton, Greg Bodnar, and Larry Peterson. Grant Bodnar had a pair of aids while Rob Lister, Hal Hulme and Rob Pemberton earned single assists.

In the other game between Brampton's Lakers and Canadiens Raider Peter Sturgeon got a goal and an assist for the winning Canadiens.

NOW IT'S OUR TURN TO VOTE ON THE NEW GUN LAW

On July 18th, 1977, 94 Liberal Members of Parliament voted in favour of Bill C-51, Justice Minister Basford's ill-conceived and constitutionally dangerous "Peace and Security" legislative package. This Bill contains highly contentious issues: Gun Controls and Wire-Tapping. At least one area of concern makes Bill C-51 totally unacceptable to all legitimate firearms owners. This is: Order in Council - law that can be enacted outside of Parliament and implemented at the whim of virtually any senior civil servant. Viz: the arbitrary restriction on April 1st, 1977, of three shoulder firearms without sound cause or reason. Following along these lines, the identical methodology and thinking could be applied at literally any time to your guns, whether they are designated as target arms, collectors' pieces, home defense weapons or family heirlooms. And, needless to say, with no financial recompense to you. Almost as unacceptable are the sections that provide for search and seizure without warrant and this bill places onus of proof on the individual which is in direct violation of the traditional "Innocent until proven guilty" precept. People who don't like Bill C-51 can do something about it. Listed you will find the names of the Members of Parliament who voted for Bill C-51. Note their parties. Make your choice and act accordingly.
