Dear God:
I wish to thank You for my life.
In 1976 the artery in my right leg began to close making it very difficult for me to walk any distance due to the seizures in my calf. The thought of having my arteries operated on really scared me. I had to go to the Burlington Hospital to have my artery cleaned out. Thank You for being with me then. I had undergone the operation and was just waking up in the recovery room to discover that I was being wheeled back in for the second operation. The second cleaned artery, during my recovery period had completely closed cutting off all circulation. My foot had turned black. Thank You for working through the doctors to save my foot and my life.

Once again during September, 1977, I found it hard to walk because circulation was so poor, the pulse beat was weak and the calf seizures in my left leg were bad.
Dr. Hunter strongly recommended I go to Dr. Yao at St. Michael's in Toronto in spite of the fact that I couldn't get an appointment with him until April. This seemed such a long time to wait when the blood was not circulating properly. Like most patients with this type of problem I feared for my leg and life.

Dr. Yao decided to place a plastic artery in my thigh to by-pass the natural artery. I could remember the last operation on my right leg with fear.
This, however, was a very different experience as the doctor asked if I would like to watch. "No," was my immediate response.
However, my hip was frozen with local anesthesia and one doctor prepared the thigh for Dr. Yao who came and worked for three minutes. Then I heard, "Stitch it up", and out he went. I couldn't believe how fast and easy it all went. Thank You.
The next day I was up, walking around. I was out of hospital in two weeks. The only problem I experience now that I am back to work and taking part in all my regular activities is that the cold bothers my legs. This is such a little thing when I think about what it could be like—no leg.

Dear God, I want all patients who have to undergo any operation of this nature to realize that they do not need to fear when You are with them and working through the doctors.
This letter of thanksgiving which I want to share with others is to help them realize that You are living and working in our lives every day.
Thank You.
Ed J., Milton, Ont.

Halton 4-H Livestock Judging Club held its first meeting April 24 in the Agricultural Office in Milton.
This year's leaders are Ken McNabb and Holly Hurren. From the 14 members present, the election of officers was taken, president, Elaine White; vice-president, Joseph Weeden; secretary, Diana Royce; and press reporter, Marilyn Bird.
Holly Hurren, the substitute assistant agricultural representative, went over the marking scheme and all the im-

TWO NEW ADDITIONS to Milton's agricultural office are Henry Olechowski (seated), a summer student, and Doug Miller, the new assistant agricultural representative. Co-incidentally, the two went to the same high school in Clinton (near Goderich).
