

High schoolers compete in intramural track meet

Acton High School students participated in their annual intramural track and field championships last week.

In past years, the meet would determine qualifiers for the Halton championships but with the Haltons and Peel-Halton past the meet was for intramural standings only.

Overall standings between the four school houses saw Green team run away with top honors earning 394 total points. Yellow house placed second in the school meet with 281, Blue third with 259 and Red with 239.

Individually, Bob Vermeulen was top performer in the mid-level boys' classification taking four first place ribbons for Red team. Don Weaver locked up three firsts including his specialty, the pole vault.

Glen Van Rijk helped the yellow team cause with a fine performance of three red ribbons in the junior boys' competition. Derek Hodgson and Steve Springle counted a pair of golds each. Bob McClure turned in a fine throw in junior discus throwing 34.78 metres. The distance would have placed McClure fifth at the Peel-Halton Championships.

Steve Van der Eyken and Les Nadhani split the red ribbon parade for senior boys' with three first place finishes each. The mid-level girls' had a fierce competition. Four girls, Dana George, Linda Osso, Heather Thatcher and Deb Clarke finished the day with two first place finishes each.

Wins in the 80 metre hurdles, 100, 200 and long jump gave Jane Trueman four first place finishes in the junior girls' competition. Donna Robinson was close behind with three firsts and a second.

In the senior girls' competition Sharon Cook was the big winner of the day snatching five first place ribbons. Karen Chapman added three firsts and Lynn Margetts, a pair.
