

Quilting classes' exhibition attracts 35 organizations

Displays of quilting were shown at the Optimist Centre, Milton, Wednesday May 23.

Organized by the home economics department for the provincial Ministry of Agriculture and Health, the displays were the work of individuals from 35 area organizations.

Each organization sent two people to attend the quilting classes held by the ministry.

Showing off quilted cushions is Mrs. Ross Cowan from the Nelson Women's Institute. She was one of the 70 exhibitors who displayed their work at the Optimist Centre, Milton, Wednesday May 23.

Last week's show was the result of their work. Purpose of the classes was for the two instructors to teach the other members of their organizations.

Putting on quilting demonstrations at the show were Boston Presbyterian Church and Grace Anglican Church from Milton.

The Canada Packers Quilt Collection was also on display.

Local girl weds May 11

Baskets of spring flowers filled St. Alban's Anglican church May 11 for the wedding of Elizabeth (Beth) Joan McCutcheon and Axel Ingo Reiche.

Rev. Len Ewing officiated at the 7.30 ceremony with Mrs. Betty Oakes providing the organ music.

Beth is the daughter of Gordon and Patricia McCutcheon, 12 Gould Cres. Axel is the son of Mrs. Anne and the late Erwin Reiche, Montreal. Both are child care workers.

Escorted down the aisle by her father, Beth wore a gown of fine Quinca knit jersey. The neckline was bordered in sculptured lace and tiny seed pearls, and a long train fell from the back. The back was buttoned in tiny buttons to the waist. A head piece of lace and seed pearls held a short mist veil. Beth carried white roses and green ivy.

Andrea Broostad was the maid of honor, wearing a China blue silk jersey gown. She carried blue and white carnations.

The bride's niece, Leigh Ann Trevail was flower girl. She wore a pale yellow floor length dress and carried a basket of white and yellow daisies.

Steve Niphakis, Victoria, New Brunswick was the best man. John McCutcheon, Acton, was usher.

An evening reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, 12 Gould Cres. The mother of the bride wore a dusty rose silk jersey gown with a corsage of orchids. Special guests were a great aunt and uncle of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. George Carr, London, England.

For travelling on a honeymoon to Toronto and Montreal, the bride wore a peach jersey dress and cream accessories and cream coat. She wore a corsage of peach colored roses.

Prior to her marriage, Beth was guest of honor at a shower hosted by Andrea Broostad and one by the staff of Cairnee Communities, Inglewood.

The newlyweds are living at 48 Elderwood Place, Brampton.

Nursery school meeting

A public organizational meeting for the proposed co-operative nursery is scheduled for Thursday starting at 7 p.m. in the library.

Interested parties are invited to help with the creation of an overall board and committees. A tentative date of October 1 has been set for the start of the co-operative nursery.

Interested parents have met often to discuss the nursery. Under a co-operative operation, usually, parents help a hired professional tend the children.

Microcomputer

The latest in microcomputer technology will be on display at Sheridan College in Oakville during Micro Age '79, June 12, 13, and 14. More than 40 exhibitors will demonstrate the flexibility of the microcomputer in business, industry and educational applications. The three-day event will also feature guest speakers expert in all aspects of microcomputers. Show times are Tuesday and Thursday 10:00 h to 18:00 h and Wednesday, 12:00 h to 21:00 h. Admission is $5.

Asthma camp

Halton Lung Association invites all children who suffer with Asthma to attend their 6th annual summer day camp. There will be two three-week camps held weekdays at E.J. James Public School and Wedgewood Park Pool, Oakville during July and August. As well as the normal day camp and swimming programs, conditioning exercises are included daily, and camp activities are designed to accommodate all applicants. Those interested are asked to contact Halton Lung Association, 827-7973, for registration forms. This program is provided free of charge and made possible by donations to Halton Christmas Seal Campaign.

Quilting done by local group

The regular meeting of the United Church Women was held May 8 in the church parlors with a good attendance.

Mrs. Lidkea opened the meeting and turned the devotion period over to Mrs. Denny who used Hymn 394 along with readings by several members to bring out the history of the different disciples of Jesus in an interesting and educational way.

Miss Dorothy Simmons turned in money from the quilting and reported that more quilts had been finished for charitable purposes.

Mrs. Ramsden had charge of used medicine bottles turned in also the trimmed Christmas Cards.

Report of "Sick and Shut-in" was given by Mrs. Shoemaker, showed many friends still ailing.

A letter from Mrs. Eaton was read by Mrs. Little. Members were glad to know she and Mrs. Brook are enjoying life in the nursing home.

The June meeting is to be in the form of a pot luck lunch, June 12 at 12.30 with the quilting to be invited guests. Each one brings their own dishes and utensils. The roll call will be a cash donation in an envelope marked "Renovations."

A discussion on the availability of beer and wine at Cedar Glen received a negative reaction.

By Mrs. R. McLean Mr. Finley's topic at church Sunday was "Springtime of Spirit."

The Holy Spirit came to Jesus at His baptism, with the voice of God saying, "Thou art My Beloved Son." He took 40 days in the wilderness to test what He could do without any support from the Holy Spirit. He began His ministry in the spirit, in His home town of Nazareth. He went into the synagogue, as was His custom. There is no sacrifice in the synagogue. It is for people to read scripture and comment on it. It takes ten people to start a synagogue service.

Jesus was handed the scroll and read from the prophet Isaiah, Chapter 60. He read, "The spirit of the Lord is upon me, because He has anointed me to bring good news to the poor, deliverance to the captive, sight to the blind and the acceptable year of the Lord. He sat down; the reader sat to teach.

The blessing of God can be upon you, no matter who you are. A little girl in an orphanage was going to be adopted. A woman came and told her all the nice things she would have. Janie asked, "What do I have to do for these things?" She was told, "You don't have to do anything, just love us." We don't have to do anything at all, just return God's love.

The Israelites in bondage asked, "How can we sing the Lord's song in a strange land?" God said, "Tell my people that I can bless them wherever they are."

Where does Heaven begin for you? In your breath?
