

YBC honors bowling champions

Jeff White accepted the Tinnie Masales Award at the Youth Bowling Council's annual bantam banquet at Knox Presbyterian Church on Saturday. Sylvia Mages made the presentation.

Retires

Sylvia Mages has been looking after the Acton YBC program for seven years but announced at last week's banquets that she would not be returning for the eighth.

Gymnasts compete

Acton gymnasts were in Orangeville last weekend competing in an invitational meet.

Amanda DeForest, competing for the Milton Springers, finished fourth in the under 10 all-round competition. Miss DeForest placed third in the floor with an 8.35 mark and fifth in the vault with a 6.0.

The only other Acton entry in the meet was Heather Ormsby. Miss Ormsby placed fifth on the bars in the eight-year-old and under class.

Youth Bowling...

(Continued from B1) presented to the most improved bowler in the entire Acton YBC leagues, bantam, junior or senior.

Marina Herrington was the most improved girl in the senior league.

The bantam banquet was held Saturday evening with the Mosquitos accepting the silverware as league champs. Angela Dunn, Kelli Higgins, Kevin Galloway, Carol Parent, Andrea Musselle and Denise Crooks make up the winning team coached by Mary Anderson.

High averages for the bantams went to Richard Cripps and Rondine Blinn. High double winners were Bev Dunn and Ken Bowers while Andrea Musselle and Brian Mandarin received the high single awards. Jeffrey White received the Tinnie Masales Award. Shannon Salter and Kevin Galloway were the most improved bantams over the year.
