

Churchill

141st anniversary for congregation

by J. Turner
 Intended for last week the congregation of Churchill Church celebrated their 141st Anniversary on Sunday, both morning and evening services well attended.

In the morning, Rev. Dwight I. Engel of Orillia was guest preacher, titling his sermon, "Righteous Discrimination". The Christian must use fine and careful discrimination in making choices as to what is best and right. Ken Stevens, Guelph was guest soloist. At the evening service, the Rev. Kenneth A. Stiles of Georgetown, was in the pulpit, his topic "What is the Church For?" The church is there for us all: for those members who need and use it regularly as necessary weekly refreshment; for those non-members who want it once in a while for baptisms, weddings, and funerals; and perhaps most of all reaching out for those who, having professed their faith and established church membership, fall away and neglect their religion thereafter. The old hymn, "Rescue me, Perishing" closed the service.

Eden Mills

Birthday party attracts many

by Mrs. W. MacDougall
 Mrs. Elsie Miller hosted a birthday party at Eleanor's Restaurant in Guelph for her family and her sisters, Annie Ashworth and Nora McLean. Guests included Mrs. and Mrs. Dave Miller; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Miller and three sons; Miss Susan Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Ashworth.

Toronto as a Public Health Inspector. Barb has her placement with the Wellington-Dufferin Health Unit in Fergus. Mrs. Betty Marshall and her volunteers took several of the ladies from Eden House Nursing Home to a Sunshine Luncheon held by the Eastern Star on Wednesday in Guelph.

Friends in the community extend sincere sympathy to the family of Elton Cole, who passed away Sunday night at his home in Acton.

It was Fiesta time for Rockwood Centennial's Primary Division—a grand finale to their Mexican studies. A traditional hat dance, pinata surprise and tacos were enjoyed by the frolicking senores and senoritas.

Ballinafad

Visitors come to area

by Winnifred Smith
 Many of the regular Church goers were away visiting this weekend, but many others brought their visitors to Church, which helped to make a fairly large congregation. Mr. Stiles welcomed the visitors.

In the Youngsters Soccer this past week the "Ballinafad Blizzards" and the Georgetown "Fire Birds" played to a 1-1 tie. Ballinafad's Brad Burnett got the tying goal. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Marshall had their families home on Sunday. The Millers from Toronto and the Polos from Rockwood.

Visitors at the Schwarz home for June are Paul's sister and her husband Mr. and Mrs. H. Mehner and their daughter and her husband all from Hanover Germany.

Miss Karen Tuffin was guest of honor at a lovely miscellaneous bridal shower hosted by Mrs. E. Jennings and Mrs. J. Cann and Mary-ellen and held in the Community Hall. Sincere best wishes to Karen and her fiancé Th Anselmini who are planning their wedding for June 16.

We extend sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Eric Haynes who receive word of the sudden death of Mrs. Haynes brother. His home was in England.

It was a gorgeous day on Saturday for the Eden Mills Football Tournament. Teams taking part in the all day affair were Badenoch, Ragg's for Men; Eden Mills Juniors; Glen Morris; Rockwood; ITT; Fergus and Aberfoyle. The games were all good with low scores. Final victors were the Fergus team who beat out Ragg's for Men with a score of 4-3.

Just a reminder that the annual Fun Fair is scheduled for June 23.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Gould extend sincere sympathy to them in the loss of Nick's dear brother, Colin Gould.

Mrs. Betty Marshall hosted a family dinner party for her son Dan Marshall who graduated from the Data Control Centre in Willowdale on Thursday. Dan now has a position with the Phillips Company and will be leaving for Vancouver to work across Western Canada. Congratulations to Dan and his sister Barbara Marshall who graduated on Friday from Ryerson Institute.

Rockwood Roundup

by Barb Wynneck
 Drop into Rockwood Hardware and have a look at the Pioneer Day bed race trophy. The handsome prize will be awarded to this year's champions. Entries require four pushers and one contestant riding in a mobile, non motorized bed. Register with Tim Kingsbury. Race gets underway at 2:30 at Rockwood Community Centre grounds.

Lucky $100 ticket holder for the Anglo-Tario draw was Donna Ford, Rockwood. The winning number was pulled May 26 at St. John's Anglican Church Bowling Green Sale. The decorated doll went home with winner Grace Day, Rockwood.

Limehouse

May wasn't kind to Scouts

from Mrs. A.W. Benion
 The weather certainly isn't being too kind to Scouting in the month of May. The Beavers were to have planted wild flower seeds at Blue Springs Scout Reserve May 26, but heavy rains cancelled it until June 2.

but there weren't enough leaders available so it is cancelled for this year. The Cubs did have a 10 mile bike hike earlier in the month. Accompanying the 12 boys were mothers Sheila Foster and Gail Gallford. Earlier in the month Liam Clark was invested as a Scout at an impressive ceremony at the Scout's overnight camp. All Scouts took part in the annual Explorer's hike along with their leaders.

It was Fiesta time for Rockwood Centennial's Primary Division—a grand finale to their Mexican studies. A traditional hat dance, pinata surprise and tacos were enjoyed by the frolicking senores and senoritas.
