by Mrs. Hadden Brownles & Guides May and June have been busy months for the First Limehouse Guides and Brownies. From May 18 to May 21 they spent a wonderful time at Camp Ma-Kee-Waa, earning badges and having a good time, as well as learning a lot of things. The girls were complimented on leaving the camp in spotless condition when they left. Park Holiday Badges were earned by Shannon Burrell, Erin Loughnan, Lea Stansbury, Lesley Case, Karen Case, Heather Brown, Judy Carroll, Sabrina

Papp, Lori Hadden and Wanita Phillips. On June 5th the Brownies and Guides attended the annual mother and daughter banquet. After a banquet, a "Fly Up" ceremony was held at Limehouse School. The received their wings: Wanita Phillips; Sabrina Papp; Heather Brown; Judy Carroll; Lori Haddon. Erin Loughnan and Lesley Case walked up to Guides because they did not have time in the one year they were in Brownies to complete the

Brownie Program. The following badges were earned by the Brownies over the past few months: team sports. to Jennifer Scott, Judy Carfriends to birds, Wanita Judy Carroll; Carroll; Case, cooks, Case, Mandy Karen Bonozew Judy Carroll and Ginger Denny; Mandy woodworkers, Bonozew: beadworkers, Judy Carroll; crafts. by Heather Rennie Prize lists for the Hall Division of the Acton Fall Fair have been mailed

The Ladies' Division of the Acton Agricultural Society heard the good news at their June Wednesday evening at the Acton Library. The entry form, usually stapled in the centre of the prize list had been left out. This omission was discovered after lists were mailed to the members. It was decided to place the entry forms in local businesses where they could be picked up. Members may also contact the Ladies' Division President, Mrs. George Cobham at 853-2080. Forms will be mailed to those outside the local area.

Eleanor McCulloch reported the quilt top is complete. The ladies were impressed with the brown tone design. The next step is to frame the top for quilting. Work will continue over the sum-songs by British entertainers, popsongs by a well known chanteuse or brass bands with stirring marches that start feet tapping in rhthym. Between numbers the smooth voice of the announcer relates anecdotes and interviews personalities such as Tony Bennett, Guy Lumbardo, Carol Channing, Dame Anna Neagel or Sir Harry Mortimer celebrating his 75th anniversary.

Old memories are stirred with the golden voice of Vera Lynn. The program is the brainchild and pride of Acton's Jack Carpenter, a resident of Elizabeth Drive, and well known radio and news personality. entrepeneur and master of ceremonies. Jack has been hosting the program for nearly six years and its popularity is increasing among the 6 million potential listeners CFCA program director Don McDonald estimates for the station signal. "It has broad appeal amongst all age groups," he says, including young people. "It is excellent listening" he declares.

McDonald admits the program is helped by the ethnic mix in the twin cities of Kitchener and Waterloo but notes mail comes from all over southern Ontario from avid listeners. The program started with an hour's time slot but has expanded into a three hour Sunday evening show with interviews and music. Celebrities interviewed are often exclusive. For instance host Carpenter interviewed Guy Lombardo three times, once shortly before he died, a coup US stations envied. Or the time Vera Lynn last visited Conada and was interviewed by Jack Carpenter, an interview Ray Sonin of Calling all Britons replayed on his Saturday show.

World renowned bandmaster Sir

Harry Mortimer celebrated his 75th anniversary on Jack's show, another staff of the station. But Jack's favorite interview is one he did with Tony Bennett, a singer he has a special spot for in his own half of fame as well as the pub-says, and the portion of his shows is eagerly listened to by the public who swap letters with Jack and exchange tall stories. The letters Jack receives are a good indicator of Music Hall's success, says Mr. MacGregor, president of Central Ontario Television Ltd. which includes CKCO-

TV, CKKW and CFCA-FM, a net work that covers most of Southern Ontario. He's also a Music Hall fan. "I never miss it," says another young producer on TV.

Jack has a large listening audience from his home town. Many of them tape his shows so they can listen to them again. There are plenty of requests for repeats but Jack has so much new material on hand he points out they are difficult to fulfil. His show has been a Sunday evening tradition now in many homes and Jack's just as enthuslastic about it as when he first got behind the mike and introduced

Music Hall to the public. He has a tremendous library of music in his own home to choose from as well as the station's so like Topsy the show just grows and goes. Satisfaction? Sure it gives me satisfaction to know people listen
