

Osprings
Knox
picnic

by Doris Fines
Mrs. Ken Stubbington, Mrs. Ralph Sinclair and Doris Fines attended the 75th anniversary dinner of Wellington Centre District Women's Institute, on Friday at the Steelworkers Hall, Fergus. Former members of Osprings WI Mrs. Ed Archibald and Mrs. Wilfred Awrey of Guelph, and Mrs. George Young of Acton, also attended. Guest speaker was Mrs. Clarence Diamond, FWIO president. Belwood Sunshine Band entertained.
Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ferguson had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tranah and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Leaver of Toronto, for dinner and dance at the Royal York hotel in Toronto, on Saturday night, where Mr. Ferguson was attending the OPSEU (Ontario Public Service Employees Union) convention for the four previous days.
Sympathy of the community is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hurren on the passing of Mrs. Hurren's mother, Mrs. John Kirkwood of the 10th Line.

There was a good attendance of about 70 people at the annual picnic of Knox church, to enjoy the barbecue and sports, last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Bruce. It was a perfect day for the races for the young people: 5 years and under—Valerie Sinclair, 6 to 9—Heidi Schotsch, 9 to 10—Kim VanManen, 11 to 12—Arthur Clark, 13 and up—Fred Clark; 3 legged race: 9 and under—Bill Viletra and Mark VanManen, 10 to 12—Karen Jackson and Kim VanManen, 13 and up—David Jackson and Danny Johnston; wheelchair race: 9 and under—Jeff Jackson and Scott Marshall, 10 and under—Karen Jackson and Glenda Sinclair, 11 and up—Debbie Clark and Danny Johnston; sack race: 8 and under—Heidi Schotsch, 9 to 11—Karen Jackson, 12 and up—Irene Nyholt; shoe scramble: 8 and under—Jeff Jackson, 9 to 12—Shirley Fletcher and Karen Jackson, 13 and up—Flora Stewart; Simon says: Glenda Sinclair, Heidi Schotsch and Jeff Jackson. Everyone took part in a treasure hunt to end an enjoyable day.

Ladies Aid
Mrs. Henry Pankratz was hostess for the June meeting of the Osprings Ladies Aid. The president Mrs. Ralph Sinclair opened the meeting with a reading for Father's day.

Mrs. Gordon Aitken led in the devotions, speaking on the importance of reading good books and knowing what we are reading. We should thank God for good books, especially the bible.

Youth
centre

A youth centre is planned for the Mug this summer, beginning July 4.

The centre, in conjunction with the YMYWCA executive, Acton Community Services, Mug Committee and the Children's Aid Society, will run every Wednesday evening in the basement of the Y.

The centre will be staffed by qualified youth workers hired under the Children's Aid Society's Experience '79 and Canada Works grants.

Activities will centre around music, games and available resource equipment. The staff will be available to help teens to co-ordinate any activities they are interested in doing.

Youths 12 to 16 are encouraged to attend the weekly event, which will be well supervised, according to Helen Friedmann, of the CAS. It was her observation of idle youth on Mill St. which prompted her to set up such a centre in the effort to give these teenagers something to do.
