New awards for St. Joseph's grads

New awards were added to the traditional graduates' distinctions earned by members of St. Joseph's Separate School's '79 graduation class.

Representatives of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire (IODE) and the Canadian Legion Ladies Auxiliary Branch 197 presented new honors to members of St. Joseph's School second graduation class during ceremonies at St. Joseph's Church Wednesday.

Boychuk appointed

Joan Boychuk was appointed as teacher to Acton High School by Halton Board of Education Thursday at Burlington.

The board also marked the resignation of Wally Rowley from the school.

Glenn Lee graduates

Glenn Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Lee 68 Churchill Rd. S. Acton, graduated from University of Waterloo with a Bachelor of Mathematics degree in the Honors Co-op Program.

After graduation he and a fellow graduate formed their own company of "Lee-Merrick Inc." as system consultant for data processing equipment with an office in Don Mills. To top off an eventful year he became engaged to classmate Phyllis Nishikawa of Toronto.

Glenn attended Acton schools.

Bruce Swift is graduate

Bruce Swift, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Syme, 120 Elmore Dr. graduated June 8 from the University of Guelph receiving a Bachelor of Science degree in Biology (Fisheries and Wildlife).

He attended Robert Little and Acton High School.

Ospringle

Church hears special music

Special music was enjoyed at Knox Presbyterian Church last Sunday morning at the anniversary service. Brenda Bruce and Eric Wallace sang two duets, O Lord Most Holy, and O Master Let Me Walk With Thee, and Brenda sang a solo—How Lovely Are Thy Dwellings. The choir from Burns Presbyterian in Erin favored with an anthem—Little David Play on Your Harp.

Reverend Noble Dean in his sermon said, "The Ospringle church is a loving, caring community, and as long as it continues to be precisely that, it will continue to be a faithful witness in this community. That is the church's strength and its growth."

Youth organizations, which have been active within the church the past year, will resume in September. Explorers, under the leadership of Brenda Dean, was a joint venture of Burns, Erin, and Knox, Ospringle. The coming year Ospringle will have its own group under the leadership of Laurel Vlietstra.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Bruce and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Johnston attended a retirement and farewell party in Oshawa last Friday night. The farewell was for Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sayers, brother of Mrs. Bruce and Mrs. Johnston, and the retirement part of the party was for Mrs. Sayers on her retirement from nursing.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Bruce and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Johnston also visited at Milverton on Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McLaughlin.

Linda Jane Furlonger of Angus, visited with her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. H.R. Howard. Other visitors at the same home were Mrs. Glenna Howard of Mississauga, and Miss Emma Gent of Port Credit.

I think I will sell my car and take to the air, Monday evening a beautiful balloon of red, orange and yellow, sailed gracefully northward over the highway and across the field to the Second Line, dropping low occasionally as if it was going to land, then raising up and away again. With the price of gas certain to go up, and the highways so congested, it appeared to me a delightful alternative in travelling.

A Fun Night was held at Ospringle school by the Parents for the Creative Playground. Over 50 people turned out to enjoy the movies and games of chance for all age groups. Races and balloon toss took place out of doors. There were hot dogs and drinks available. Profit goes toward construction of the Ospringle playground.

T-shirts have been sold. A contest was held, when the students drew designs for it, then selected the one they thought best.

Parents have been making desserts to be sold on Fridays—hot dog days. Altogether they have raised what is needed for phase one, and hopefully, construction will start by mid-July.

An awards assembly was held on the last day of school, for the presentation of awards and tabs earned during the school year. Perfect attendance medallions were presented by principal Lorne Brown to four students, Bill Vlietstra, Gino Feletto, Kelly Hisaki and Lisa Swackhamer.
