

Eden Mills
Church women
meet

by Mrs. W. MacDougall
Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Thompson spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Pete Ordlib at Newmarket.
Mr. and Mrs. George Waller of Palmerston had a short visit with Mrs. Betty Marshall. George is the son of the late Dr. K. B. Waller of Rockwood, a friend and physician to many of us here.

The president, Mrs. Ted Barden was hostess for the June meeting of the Presbyterian Women. After the reports, Mrs. Lasby showed samples of the material purchased to recover the vestry furniture. A note of thanks is to be sent to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph MacDonald for making the pretty flower beds that enhance the front of the church. Mrs. G. W. Lasby gave a short report of the spring rally of the Waterloo-Wellingford Presbyterian held at Harriston and also read the dedication for the Pennies for the Fellowship of the Least Coin. Readings were given by Anna Wilson and Ev Barden, followed by closing prayer.

UCW meeting
There was a good attendance at the UCW meeting held at the home of Mrs. Rene Beattie. Mrs. Betty Snow took the devotional on "Pre-tence", followed by a hymn and prayer. The correspondence consisted of thank-you notes and a letter from the late Mrs. Sadie Thomas' sister.

Donations were made to the church fund and the community club. Stacking chairs are to be purchased from Dominion Store tapes. Mrs. Betty Snow and Mrs. Freda Thompson reported on the executive meeting they attended at Moorefield. Mrs. Holly Saulnier gave a report of her day at Presbytery. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hamer from Blind River spent several days visiting with Mrs. Wilk Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lemmer of Toronto and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lemmer Jr. and Scott spent the long weekend with Bill and Mel Lowrie. Mr. and Mrs. Mansell Lowrie spent Sunday in Toronto with Joan's mother and sister Beatrice.

Mrs. Tosh Legaco from Sudbury spent the holiday with her sister Mrs. Anna Wilson. On Sunday they visited their sister Mrs. Margaret Reilly in Moorefield.

The junior ball team won a double header against Badenoch on Tuesday night with the scores 4-2 and 7-1.

The G. W. Lasby family were hosts for the Canadian Shortbread Secretaries' conference with about 40 guests from across Canada, this past weekend.

The congregation of the Presbyterian Church extended a warm welcome to the Shortbread visitors and members of Stone United, Rockwood United and Rockwood Presbyterian churches on Sunday morning. The guest soloist, Pat Pepper from Arthur, with her guitar delighted the worshippers with gospel songs she had written herself. Next week's worship will be at the Stone United church, conducted by Rev. Gostonyl.

Sincere get well wishes and prayers go out to Mrs. Bill MacDonald who is in hospital in Toronto recovering from an eye operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Mel Tolton spent some of the holiday visiting relatives at Blyth.

No new postmaster

There is no word yet on a replacement for postmaster Gord McKeown who died suddenly last month while on vacation. Mr. McKeown's work is being handled by assistant postmaster Chris McMillan until a replacement is announced.
