Scouts visit

It's summer and the Scouting movement has closed up for the holidays. Right? Wrong!

District council president Jean Belshaw said exciting plans for the summer are in store for Scouting movement members from Acton, Georgetown and the surrounding area.

A visit by Danah Boy Scouts in the home hospitality program will take place July 6 to 9. The boys who have been camping at the Haliburton Scout centre will be staying with scouting families in Halton Hills. They will only have a short two day visit, however the idea of the program is for them to experience life in a Canadian home.

The second Georgetown boys will host Scouting members from Bermuda at a camp from July 13 to 21 at the Camp of the Woodland Trails. The boys will take day trips from the campsite to visit tourist sites in and around Toronto.

Boys from England will be experiencing the home hospitality program from July 24 to 31. A district organized get together is planned for St. George's hall on Thursday, July 26.

Leaving the area during the summer is Kevin Elwood, a Scout from Glen Williams. Kevin left Tuesday, July 3 for the mini-world jamboree in Sweden. He will be returning on July 24.

Scouter John Booth will be taking four Scouts from July 6 to 13 to the Greater Toronto region jamboree held in Brantford.
