Teacher transfers

Halton school board trustees approved several teacher transfers during the regular board meeting Thursday at Burlington.

Effective next September: Jane Zaroway is going from Milton to Acton High School, Katherine Platt is switching to George Kennedy in Georgetown, from Robert Little in Acton, Bob Pinkerton will be teaching at Limehouse rather than at Stewarttown.

Also transferring is Patricia Mindorf from Georgetown/Park school to Stewarttown, Jean McArthur to J.M. Denyes at Milton from Brookville, Thelma Hearn from Stewarttown to Park, and Pauline Harley to Centennial Middle School at Georgetown from Limehouse. And finally, Michael Coates departs Limehouse for Stewarttown and Vi Bain joins Brookville after leaving Sunningdale.

Members at annual

Ten members of Greenock WI were present at Wellington Centre District Annual. With 1979 International Year of Child several students of Hillsburgh Public School acted out a skit representing a family in several stages from the cradle to retirement.

The Sr. Citizens Sunshine Band of Belwood were most entertaining. Each branch was eligible to bring an anniversary cake to be judged for decoration representing the 75th anniversary this year and served at the luncheon. Mrs. M. Lealy is our new district president.

On June 12, 13 members, six children and one visitor spent the day at the Ontario Agricultural Museum near Milton.

On June 15, the 75th anniversary banquet was held in the Steel Workers hall, Fergus. Over 300 attended from the 11 branches of Wellington Centre District.

Sixteen members represented Greenock at the memorable event, three of whom were lucky in the draws. The Sunshine Band entertained.

Last week a bus trip to St. Jacob's and the market nearby was the July event.

Twenty-four ladies and seven children enjoyed the day, going to the market first and then several shops in the town.
