Eden Mills

Resident enjoys western holiday

by Mrs. W. MacDougall
Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jennings were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Love, Toronto; Mrs. Florence Moffatt, from Barnsley, England; Mrs. Gary Spinson, Hamilton and Mrs. Edna Kennedy, Acton.
Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jennings spent a weekend in Oshawa visiting Edith's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Goode.
Mr. and Mrs. Alec Davidson, Bob and Barbara from Vancouver are holidaying with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Adair.
Aberfoyle's Laidlaw ball team edged out the senior ball team with a 2-1 score last Monday evening.
Correction to the first item in last week's column—it was Harold Walton who passed away in North Bay and not Harold Watson.
Mrs. Marg Peeling has returned from an enjoyable vacation at the west coast. Her first plane stop was at Vancouver where she visited with Mr. and Mrs. Alex Davidson and then on to Komax, Vancouver Island for a stay with her sister Pat and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. Andrews, Trudy and Gordon.

The junior ball team came up from behind again and beat out Rockwood with a score of 9-8 in the last inning.
Some of the Stevenson family had a fun get-together for a picnic supper and games at the home of their grandmother and aunt, Mrs. J. and Mrs. W. Gilbertson on Friday evening. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Stevenson, David and Jennifer, Stoney Creek; Dr. and Mrs. Jim Henry, Guelph; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Law, Michael and Christina, Winnipeg, Man., Mr. and Mrs. Jamie Douglas and Marlene, Oakville; Mr. and Mrs. John Krug, Kitchener and Sharon Gilbertson.
Mrs. Bea Birch of Toronto is enjoying a vacation with her sister and brother-in-law, Joan and Mansell Lowrie at their cottage on Lake Belwood.

Ballinafad

Dr. Robert Sneyd was the guest speaker at Ballinafad United Church on Sunday. He introduced himself on a humorous note saying he was a retired Baptist minister, but had been the guest speaker at so many different churches of late-Presbyterian, United—as well as his own Baptist, that he was a bit mixed up as to his own identity. He said he was pleased, however to share part of this Sunday in this beautiful little Church, in more or less of a rural area. His inspiring message gave the congregation food for thought as he stated that God was the Creator of all and that there were so many mysteries to life, and that some would always remain a mystery.

Limehouse

English visitor
by Mrs. A.W. Benton
Mrs. Gail Sitcliffe of Devon, England has been visiting her friend, Mrs. T.N. Anderson.
Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lister (nee Judy Lafferty) who were married in Guelph on Saturday.
Congratulations to Jonathon Lister who graduated from Grade 13 with 87.2 per cent in the January class, George's own.
Mrs. John Glynn has returned from an enjoyable tour of the Channel Islands, England, Scotland and Ireland.
FUEL ECONOMY
Divide the number of miles you've driven lately by the number of gallons of gasoline you've bought. Are you getting the fuel economy you should on your car?

Dr. and Mrs. James Pettit, Robbie and Rieky, of Ottawa, visited for a week with Mrs. Pettit's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Howes.
Those who attended the memorial service at Coningsby cemetery last Sunday enjoyed a beautiful day. J. M. Leitch welcomed everyone, and the chairman was Howard Graham. The address was given by Rev. Canon Thompson who paid tribute to those gone before, and commented on the beautifully kept grounds. Musical selections were given by the choir of All Saints Anglican Church, Erin.
While hoeing the flower bed I saw a hole about the size I thought would accommodate a snake. I was hoeing over the top of it when I saw the earth quiver and shake. I was all prepared to throw down my hoe and take to my heels, when to my surprise a big toad lifted its head and stared at me as if to say, "What on earth are you doing?" I hastily apologized, recovered him and left him to his slumbers.
Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Aitken spent a few days

industrial ball
Earl Malby for the Hustlers' was the big threat to the Oilers as he smacked three doubles and one single scoring four runs. Ivan Wheeler was also a heavy hitter for the Hustlers as his single and double brought home three runs.
The second game had the Ballinafad Blue Jays meeting the Limehouse Rocks. This was the game to see, if a good defensive and pitching game is your thing. It was a pitchers duel all the way with the game ending in a two all tie. Brian Moore for the Rocks pitched a two hitter and having his day at bat hitting a single and a double. Dan Englyb gave up only three hits and hit a three bagger. This is the second tied score this season when these two teams have met.

Chris Tennant thought about becoming a banjo player for a while when he eyed the piece at a garage sale at 39 Wellington Street Saturday morning.

Guests for local residents

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Jamieson welcomed her brother and his wife, from Scotland on Friday. They will be visiting with the Jamiesons' for a few weeks and will be among the guests at Marion Jamieson's wedding on Saturday.
The many friends of Mrs. Emily Plouffe will be pleased to hear there is an improvement in her condition in the Georgetown Hospital. We hope she makes a complete recovery soon.
During the hot humid weather of last week, the back yard swimming pool seemed to be the most popular spot any time of the day or evening for those fortunate enough to have one.
