Biker slams cruiser after Milton chase

An Acton motorcyclist spent some time recovering from injuries he suffered when his machine slammed into a Halton Regional Police road block in Milton.

The 27-year-old Kingham Rd. man was observed by police early Friday morning to be driving in an erratic manner. One cruiser gave chase, but the motorcyclist evaded detection.

Later a second cruiser spotted the machine and the chase along Steeles Ave. resumed at a high rate of speed.

Meanwhile the first cruiser set up a roadblock north of the railway tracks on Tremaine Rd. The cruiser, according to police, had its roof lights on.

The pursued motorcycle ran into the front of the stopped cruiser number 113.

The '79 Honda motorcycle is a "write-off", according to police. Damage to the new cruiser amounts to about $3,700.

The police officer was not hurt in the collision. The motorcyclist was reported by police to be in stable condition at Milton District Hospital.

The Acton man is charged with impaired driving, having more than the legal amount of alcohol in his blood, dangerous driving, speeding and not having insurance.
