Chortles and Chester were clowning around through most of the Playground parade. The parade travelled down Mill Street to Main, down Main to Knox and to the arena.

Graham Ruse had deadly aim at the balloon breaking contest at the Playground Penny Carnival.

Georgetown's Sports Centre sponsored a ball toss at the Playground closing at the community centre last week. Jeff Miebema and many others found the event popular.

The "Playmobile" which travelled to rural areas of town every day over the summer to supply the kids with fun and games could hardly be recognized in the parade with all its decorations.

Committee defers bid
Halton Land Division Committee agreed to a second deferral for a severance application from a rural Acton man.
The committee put over the application from Franco Moro, RR 2, for the conveyance of an approximately 50 acre rectangular shaped lot in Lot 32 on the Sixth Concession.
The deferral was made August 14 when committee met in the old Equestrian Township offices of the Seventh Line. Committee deferred a hearing on the matter last month.

Phony papers used to defraud
Forged prescriptions were used to obtain pharmaceutical products from drug stores in Acton and Georgetown with an investigation into an indecent assault complaint made by a woman hitch-hiker against the man who gave her a drive on the 7th line, north of Highway 5, early Friday morning.
Halton Regional Police have two suspects in mind in connection with a break and enter of an RR 2 Hornby home Saturday. Taken was a collection of assorted Canadian and foreign coins and bills, some jewellery and silverware. Value of the loot was placed by police at more than $1,000.
Security for the film site in town report four thefts of flag and banner props.
A car battery, eight track tapes and two car speakers were stolen in three separate thefts—each valued at less than $200—from vehicles in Georgetown.

McNabb wins WI bursary
Miss Marilyn McNabb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McNabb, RR 2 Georgetown, is the winner of the Dr. Eibel Chapman Scholarship, awarded by the Halton District Women's Institute.
Marilyn graduated from Milton District High School, an Ontario Scholar. She has completed 14 4-H Homemaking Clubs and 15 Agricultural Clubs and has her Provincial and County honors certificates.
Marilyn plans to attend the University of Guelph, majoring in Agricultural Economics.
