

Ballinac

Long weekend cuts attendance

by Winifred Smith
Many of the residents took advantage of the long weekend to travel or visit which was noticeable with the small attendance at the church service on Sunday. Mr. Stiles in his sermon continued his study on the prophets. Next Sunday with holidays over, Sunday School will commence again.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest McEnery and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Sinclair spent the holiday weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Bud Snow at their cottage near Mount Forest.

The Ballinac young folk with the assistance of their parents held a backyard carnival for Muscular Dystrophy on Thursday, August 30. It was held in the Foellers', McCutcheons' and Collins' backyards. The Ballinac children raised $31.00 for M.D.

There was a great turnout and participation in all the activities such as baseball throw. There was a junk table, bake sale, sponge toss, dart throw and other sports.

First prize bitch, Ennisclare Blizzard smooches with huntmaster, Joy Lindvik, after being presented with her ribbon. The Acton based Ennisclare hunt held its first hound puppy show recently at the farm of Mr. and Mrs. G Lindvik, R.R.2, Acton. In co-operation with the London Hunt, hound puppies were judged conformationally to predict their future as hunting hounds. Ennisclare hounds took most of the ribbons. Blizzard is held by handler, Huntsman Bill Spurrier.

Rowdyism sparks action

Licence numbers of cars parked on roads near the reservoir in the Scotch Block area are being taken by staff of the Halton Region Conservation Authority.

The action is an effort to curb vandalism and rowdyism which the authority has experienced in the area.

Mr. Stephen said the reservoir is not to be used for recreation purposes. Thus, fishermen are being warned and asked to move.

Murray Stephen, general manager of the authority, told Milton Councillor Gord Krantz at a meeting of the authority at town hall Thursday that the authority had to resort to the action after complaints from abutting property owners were received.

Ken Campbell endorses decision

The President of Renaissance International has commended the Toronto Board of Education for its decision to replace the Lord's Prayer by a moment of meditation at the beginning of the school day.

Christ as the servant of the State, a sort of "cosmic big cop" enforcing Caesar's "law and order" demands... In Campbell's view, "a democratic government serving a free and pluralistic society, has no business propagating any religion in government schools." According to Mr. Campbell, the "Darwinian dogma" and "Freudian heresy" of "secular religion" ought also to be suitably replaced by a balanced approach in science and sex education courses.

Local family billets youths

Churchill Community Church opens its doors again next week for regular Sunday morning services, after a month's vacation. During August we were guests of Acton Baptist Church, and much enjoyed the fellowship and hospitality of our Baptist friends, as well as Das Sydney's interesting and challenging sermons.

By Doris Fines
Mr. and Mrs. Stuart McKinnon responded to the request for billets for members of the Huddersfield Youth Orchestra and Swing Band from Yorkshire, England, who performed at EDHS in August. Mr. and Mrs. McKinnon, Karen and Connie, entertained four young people, two 15-year old girls and two 16-year old boys, for six days. Barbara described them as just terrific kids, exceptionally well mannered and a pleasure to have around. She says she wouldn't hesitate to take others anytime the occasion arose.

Church services have resumed again in Knox Presbyterian since Rev. and Mrs. Nobel Dean have returned from their vacation. The building itself has received a face lift as paint was applied to the doorway, brightening up the entrance.

Churchill congregation will meet Sunday at 10:30 a.m. for worship service in the church, embarking immediately afterwards for the Kelso Conservation Area via Denny Bus Lines. There, the annual Sunday School Picnic (postponed from June) will be held. Everyone is asked to bring a picnic lunch. There will be games and races and fun for young and old. There
