Ladies set for fall fair

by Heather Renale

A last minute check of plans for this week's Fall Fair was the order of business at the regular September meeting of the Ladies' Division of the Acton Agricultural Society. The members met at the Acton Public Library on Wednesday, September 5 to add the final touches to their year's work.

This division is responsible for the judging and display of most of the classes in the hall: domestic science, canned and preserved products, plants and flowers, junior exhibits, homecrafts, crafts and hobbies, group displays, and school children's work. Judges have been secured for all classes. Again this year the members will donate the prizes for the exhibitors winning the most points in each of the hall classes. Simpsons Sears of Acton has given a prize of silverware to the winner of the most points in the home classes.

On Saturday afternoon the members attention will turn to the Baby Show. The popular show is run by the Ladies' Division who donate the trophies for the winning babies and ribbons for all contestants.

Local groups and businesses supply additional prizes. Registrations are being taken at "Toddlers to Teens" until fair time and on Friday evening from 7:30 to 8:30 in the hall area of the arena floor.

A work meeting this Wednesday will prepare the hall for exhibits which will be arriving Friday morning for judging and display over the three days of the fair.

The Ladies' Division also contributes members to various other areas of the fair, such as the parade and the Miss Acton Fair committees.

The ladies' Division is looking forward to a great fair.

Rev. Beaton to conduct service

A traditional "Harvest Home" service will be conducted by Rev. Charles Beaton, Acton United Church, at 2 p.m. on Thanksgiving Sunday, October 7, at the historic White Church on the Fourth Line West in Caledon. Rev. Beaton was a former minister of the church in the early 1960's and is well known to many of the former congregation.

Following the church's 142 year tradition, the service will be simple with old familiar hymns and music supplied by John Lane of Alton.
