

The Acton Free Press

One Hundred and Fifth Year—No. 12

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 1979

Second Section

Rhona Thornhill takes careful aim during the Firefighters' Waterball Contest on Sunday. Rhona and the rest of her Acton team advanced to the finals before bowing out.

Newly crowned Miss Acton Fall Fair Cathy McGrath (centre) and her runner-ups Kim Ottoway and Juanita Andrews were all smiles during the parade on Saturday.

Barb Kulken savors a MacIntosh morsel at the Calvinette's apple stand.

Miss Acton's of the past, l. to r. Victoria Lenisky, Susan Thibodeau, Brenda Hillier, Maggie Hall and Charmaine Bigelow enjoyed participating in the fall fair parade.

66th ANNUAL
ACTON

FALL FAIR

Fair Board president Brent Marshall

Conduis ridden by Jane Casselman shows excellent form over fences during Saturday's fall fair jumping classes.

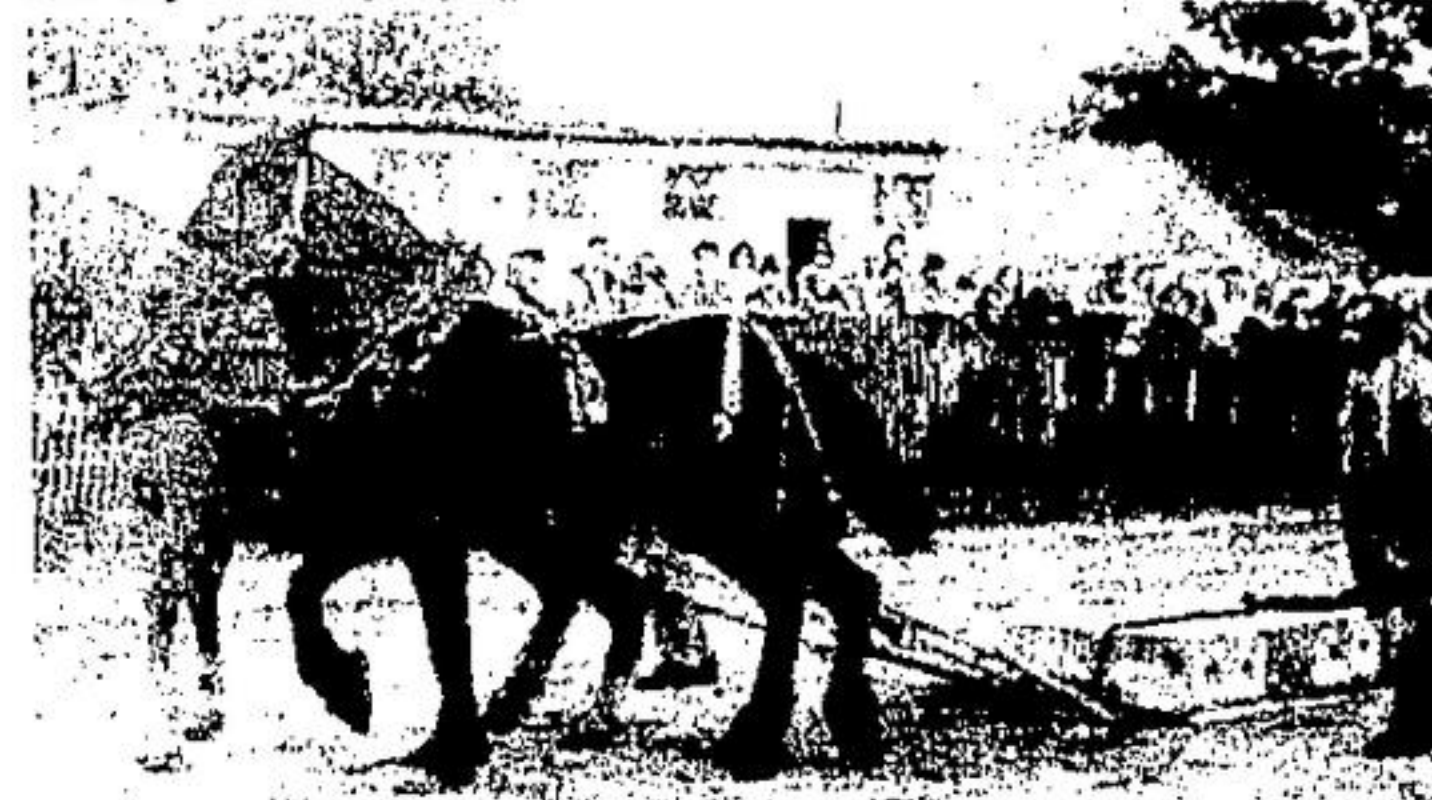

Harry Otterbein, Doug Mason and chums serve up platefuls of breakfast to help folks get their day started at the Legion Saturday morning.

Miss Acton, Cathy McGrath, took a short walk on the Acton Scouts' rope bridge.

The Georgetown Pipe Band brought the sound of the highlands into the midsts of fall fair activities.

Entries came for miles around for the heavy horse pull Friday evening.

Dennis McClure of R.R. 3 Georgetown displays the sow which took Grand Champion honors.

Royal Canadian Legion Branch 197 veterans were in full color during the parade Saturday.

Children of all ages took advantage of the assortment of rides and amusements offered in the fair grounds.

Mrs. Dorothy O'Rourke represented Acton during the fiddlers' contest, now ranked one of the best in the country.