

Strikes and Splits

With Bob Heatley

Big Four & Two
Big Four Plus 2 are a week late handing in their score sheet, but no matter they are still rolling for averages and haven't selected their teams yet.

Ladies high single of the night went to Cecile Tremblay, 230. She also picked up the fairer sex's high triple with a 584. Other top singles went to George Norton 243, Alison Willmott 218, Jack De Graaf, 218; Jackie Tremblay 217, Francis Huyenbirk 216.

Men's high single of the night went to Moe Patenaude 253. Moe also captured the triple with a 619 (other triples that followed Moe's were Rick Tremblay 599, Jack De Graaf 599, Alison Willmott 559, Mary Patenaude 526, Francis Huyenbirk 526).

Headmore
The leather workers started Monday night. Charlene Hubble rolled her way to the ladies' high single 243. Rose Fountain must have thought she was still at work the way she was packing in those strikes and spares. She clocked out a 645 triple. Bill McGilloway shot a 233 high single while Bill Patey rolled a 658 triple. Other high singles went to Sue Hobson 242, Brenda McGilloway 235, Rose Fountain 234, Charlie Hubble 235, Bill Patey 234.

Top Triple shooters under Patey's 658 were Jack Stuckless 631, Sue Hobson 631, Jim Hobson 623, Charlie Hubble 606, Bill McGilloway 599. After the first week Strikers lead with four Platters in second with three Polishers and Fushers are tied with one and the Rollers weren't rolling too good that night for they have a grand total of 0. Come on Rollers, we're all rolling for you.

Blue Springs
The Sweet Peas, Hemlocks and the Ragweeds all took three out of three from the Pansies, Jasmims and Rose-buds. This makes for a three way tie for first I guess the Pansies, Jasmims and Rose-buds are waiting for a spring rain before they start sprouting. High single of the night went to my YBC boss lady Sylvia Alages, 249 and guess who's sister took the high triple. You guessed it, Sylvia's sister Mary Anderson 612. Top singles that followed Sylvia's were Pat Wood 244, Jean Harris 238, Adele Nolan 381, Phyllis Stuckless, 380.

Acton Ladies
Acton ladies are rolling for keeps now. They still haven't picked their teams names yet, but we'll call them just team 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6 for now.

Betty Chayne lead the ladies with both high single and triple with a 249, 646. Right behind Betty's single were Mary Papiilon 233, Mary Stocks 230, Sandy McDonald 230, Thelma Sokolowski 227, Cheryl Daponte 217. Betty didn't have anybody challenge her for the triple; closest roller was Edna Melsaac 265, Mary Stocks 562, Gene Binden 551, Judy Vandereyken 544, Cheryl Daponte 538. Team six and Team Three are both tied for first with seven points. Team Two has five points. Team One has two points. Poor Team Five and Four are both tied for last place with zero points.

Industrial Commercial
J & T Sports had little trouble beating the bowling shoes off John's Texaco whipping them three straight.

The three wins give J & T first spot in the standings. McEachern, Electric also rolled their way to three victories over the poor souls of House of Buys, putting the Electrics in second spot. The only team without a name yet took two out of three from Reliable Taxi.

High single of the night went to Mae Herrington with a 303. Mae also scored high triple 822. Other high singles were Dave McMillan 299, Ron Turkosz 286, Larry Nolan 264, Al Avery 263. The boys found Mac Triple too much for them but I guess you could say they tried. Al Avery shot a 719, Dave Millan 704, Larry Nolan 703, Gary Wilson 681, Bob Woodcock, 673.

Acton Mixed
It seemed that my across the road neighbors must have had a wager going on between themselves for both George and Mona Finders captured both high singles and high triples. Mona's high single 264, triple 634. If they had some money between themselves on the night, George must be a little heavier in one pocket for he squeaked by Mona's single with a 266 and bettered her triple by 37 pins with his 671. That a boy George. Isn't it great to come home and not have to listen to all the "I told you so's".

Other top singles went to Sue Lewandowski 244, Pat McDowell 230, John Higgins 230, Cheryl Phillips 227, Frank Daley 225. High triples were rolled by John Higgins 646, Burnice "Bouncer" Norton 604, Fred Blain 567, Mary Daley 553, Pat McDowell 552. No league standing yet for the Mixed group they are still rolling for averages.

Dylan
Tramo got rolling for serious points on Sunday with Phyllis Lusty taking both the ladies high single 204 and high triple 494. Steve Campbell also captured both highs with a 277 and 661. Other high singles went to Dan Lanarke 254, Don Marzo 214, Dave Campbell 211, Bill Lusty 204, Dorothy Lusty 183. High triples of the afternoon were rolled by Dan Lanarke 596, Dave Campbell 534, Steve Morrison 531, Sheldon

Barker 522, Bill Sanderson 491.

Every team has a name now starting with the Good Guys who are tied for first spot with the Lazy Lanners and the Warriors and the Blondells bringing up the rear.

Minor hockey names coaches

Acton (Waterloo-Wellington) Minor Hockey is moving into full swing after the completion of the Acton Fall Fair.

The minor sports group has named its coaches for the upcoming season as they try to build league and Ontario championship teams. Ron Salmon has been named coach of the Acton Novice entry in the Waterloo-Wellington league this year with Dave McEachern taking over as coach with the minor atoms. Dan McGilloway moves from the coach of last year's novice team to the Major Atoms this time around while Jim Haggitt will take the helm of the League president.

Minor Pee-wee entry.
Barry Insoce is one of only two coaches remaining with the same age level as last year. He remains behind the bench of the Acton Major Pee-wee entry as does Cope Smith with the Midgets.

Acton Minor Bantams will see Ruddy Holmes at their helm this season with the Hillier brothers, Ed and Dan, moving from minor to major bantams. The juveniles are the only team currently without a coach. Although an application has been received the minor hockey group will wait to see if enough players show an interest.

Bruce Cargill is hoping the rep teams will be skating on the Community Centre ice by the first Saturday in October. Any boy wishing to try-out can watch the Free Press for practise times. There will be a $2 ice time fee for every boy who attends a practice.
