These two ponies had a long pull along the fair parade route. They had a big weight for such little fellas!

Daphne Ness' 15-year-old black Chihuahua won the top prize as the smallest dog in the fair's pet contest.

Just take it easy! said Acton High teacher Bick McArthur as he talked with Denis Kirton during the teacher-student softball game at the school last week. Kirton was pitching for the teachers, who lost the contest 4-6.

Preliminary budget shows increase in sewer revenue

Halton's administration and finance committee has been shown the 1980 preliminary budget which indicates a 12.8 per cent increase in expenditures over 1979. The budget is balanced by a preliminary projection of a 12.8 per cent increase in revenues. Deputy treasurer Jim Stewart who is preparing the budget and a timetable of deadlines so the budget can be ready for council review in April, said many of the figures can be expected to change. One of the revenue amounts shown has already caused discussion among committee members. The budget table shows a 2,532 per cent increase in sewer surcharge revenues. It will not be known until the new year just what the region can expect in this area. The budget as shown to committee last Wednesday, shows the total expenditures at $41,386,700, up 12.8 per cent from the approved 1979 budget expenditures of $36,703,014. Revenues shown for 1979 and proposed in 1980 are identical. Mr. Stewart said budget instructions will be sent to department heads this month so detailed budgets can be prepared by Nov. 16. The regional draft budget book is to be completed by Nov. 30 with committee review to begin in January and final budget summary ready by Mar. 8.

Rockwood couple wed 40 years ago

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Meek of Guelph Street celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary at a reception and dinner given in their honor by their family at Rockwood United Church on September 22.

Mr. and Mrs. Meek (the former Mary McNaig) were married on Sept. 20, 1939 in Lemonville, Ontario by the late Rev. Wm. Irwin. The couple's immediate family all attended: Mr. and Mrs. Jamie Meek and Lynne of West Montrose; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cornell (Judith), Laura and Douglas of Chatham; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Waddell (Kathryn), Carolynne and Amy, of Guelph; Robert Meek and Miss Wendy Reid of Richmond Hill; and Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Cooper (Nancy) of Cambridge.

During the evening, speeches were given by Ray Hansen of Georgetown, brother-in-law; Albert McWilliams of Guelph, life-long family friend; Mrs. Stephen Cooper of Cambridge, daughter; Rev. H. Garfield Rees, minister of Rockwood United Church and Dr. G.A.B. Moore, former minister of Rockwood United Church, both of Guelph.

Lynne Meek, grand-daughter, played two piano selections and Mrs. William Black of Rockwood sang songs she had sung at their wedding 40 years ago. Relatives and friends attended from Cambridge, Chatham, Chilliwick, B.C., Georgetown, Guelph, Kingston, Orangeville, Ottawa, Peterborough, Thornbury, Toronto, West Montrose, Woodstock and the Rockwood area. Mrs. Meek is retired from McLaughlin Library, University of Guelph and Mr. Meek is retired from the Department of Transportation and Communications.

The beautiful floral arrangements on the tables were done by the Meek's neighbor, Mrs. Harding Burnaby. Mr. Harding Burnaby was the photographer for the occasion.

Mrs. Meek made her own anniversary cake as she had also made her own wedding cake 40 years ago and she kept the top cake decoration for 40 years and used it on this cake. On this occasion the pieces of cake were passed by the 5 grandchildren.
