

Hofman-de Vries have Las Vegas honeymoon

Large baskets of white gladioli, white mums and peach carnations decorated Acton Baptist church July 21 for the wedding of Diana de Vries and Peter Joseph Hofman.

The bride, of 150 Lakeshore Rd., W. Mississauga, is the daughter of Henry and Elly de Vries, 138 Acton Blvd.

The groom is the son of V. Leonce and the late Mrs. Leonce, London, England. Both are employed as hairstyling consultants with the Haircutting Place of Blair James, the bride at Sherway Gardens, the groom in Richmond Hill.

Rev. Das Sydney officiated at the double ring candlelight ceremony. Norman Moore provided the organ music.

Escorted down the aisle by her father, Diana wore a gown of sheer nylon over white silk, with a sheer floor length cape trimmed in Swiss lace. The fingertip veil was held in place by a Swiss lace head piece.

Matron of honor was Lillian Landsborough, sister of the bride of Acton. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Irene Ryder, Yellowknife, Audrey de Vries, Guelph, and Miss Jody de Vries, Acton, all sisters of the bride, and Antoinette Leonce, sister of the groom from London, England. They were dressed in peach silk jersey with short sheer capes. They carried peach colored roses with Stephanotis and baby's breath.

Dick Hilliard, Guelph, was best man. Ushers were Peter Bynoe, a friend, and Nick Bond, brother-in-law of the groom and Paul Leonce, the groom's brother.

At an afternoon reception at the Acton Meadows Golf Course, antique wine glasses were used for the toast. They were the same glasses used at the bride's parents' wedding, and at her sisters' weddings. Guests also admired an antique gold bracelet with nine Cameos from her mother, and a special ring the groom was wearing from his mother.

Piet Duyn, friend of the family, was master of ceremonies and William Landsborough, brother-in-law made the toast to the bride. The mother of the bride received wearing a silk silver beige jersey dress with brown and gold accessories. A corsage of white gardenia complemented the ensemble. Receiving for the groom was his sister, Mrs. Emma Bond, Mississauga wearing a

CWL studies elderlies needs

Twenty-three members of St. Joseph's Catholic Women's League met on October 9 to study the needs of the elderly in the community.

A film "Where Mrs. Whalley Lives" was presented and followed by a discussion. It is everyone's responsibility to see that the needs of the elderly are not forgotten—the physical, spiritual, emotional and social needs. Too often a loving parent's or grandparent's feelings are the last things considered, leaving that person feeling totally useless, unwanted, and lonely.

Appropriate literature made available by Halton Hills Community Services was offered to members so each could decide what she personally could contribute in her own community. It is hoped that, through the educational evening, members of the League can brighten someone's day and give that person a sense of worth.

During the business of the meeting the annual Christmas bazaar was discussed. It will be held on November 24, 11:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. at the Acton Legion. Free babysitting will be provided this year also.

Plans were made for the Christmas dinner for CWL members to be held on Wednesday December 12 at 6:00 p.m.

A rummage sale will be held in the Parish hall on October 26, 7:00-8:30 p.m. and October 27, 10:00-12:00 a.m. for fall and winter items.

The League has made a donation to the fund for the "Boat People" and a cheque has been presented to Rev. John Cooper. An invitation will be extended to the Acton and area community to attend the November 13 meeting. Guest speaker for this occasion will be Mrs. Eileen Smith from Burlington who will speak on natural family planning, the Billings Method.

BICYCLE SAFETY
Gerry Barnhill, Superintendent of Schools for the Wellington County Board of Education will be conducting a study to see if adequate safety instruction concerning bicycle riding is provided for the students of Wellington.
