COSTS MONEY
Sulfur dioxide emissions can be reduced, but it will cost money. In eastern Canada, it would take at least $350 million annually to cut emissions by 50 percent. In the north-eastern United States, the total would be more than $5 billion a year for similar reductions.

Beat rising heat costs. RE-INSULATE NOW!

With today's high cost of heating your home, adding insulation is a must. Whether your home is 5 years old or 100 years old, it is a proven fact that re-insulating can cut your fuel consumption by 20-50% depending on the geographic structure.

ROGERS INSULATION is a local contractor and has trained specialists who can offer quality guaranteed workmanship.

McKenzie-Smith news

by Jean Swift and Natalie Russiani
In the last few weeks there have been Girls' Field Hockey practices in preparation for the game against Centennial last Thursday, in which McKenzie-Smith successfully defeated Centennial by the score of 1 to 0. Sally Briggs scored the winning goal. There were 15 girls picked for the team.

Names are as follows: (coach) Mr. Coleman, Andrea Arbic, Sally Briggs, (captain), Laura Brillinger, Lisa De Peri, Lisa Roberthein, Tracey Dunbar, Nancy George (assist. captain), Christine Hoare, Deb Lumbers, Gretchen Lathrop, Robin McClure, Natalie Russiani (assist. captain), Jean Swift and Susan Tufford.

The McKenzie-Smith Cross Country Team were very successful in both the North Halton and the All Halton Meet. Coaches, Miss McHugh and Mr. Leatherland were very pleased with each participant.

Our runners were competing in races of up to 200 people in each. Some top placers were Jennifer Kelly (2nd), Chris Hoare (3rd), Cathy Kolozsvari (10th), Angie Vuk (11th), Jonathon Silcock (3rd), Richard Kilpatrick (22nd).

The magazine campaign started on Friday, Sept. 28. The top class with the most sales is class 8-2 with $1,074. At the end of this campaign there will be a pizza party for the top class. On the evening of Oct. 10 many parents visited McKenzie-Smith. Many of the students' articles were placed on display and teachers explained their programs.

St. Joseph's news

by Honor Sweezy and Rhonda Barrett
Today people everywhere will be celebrating International Year of the Child!!! Our school will be having special sessions to commemorate the day.

The Parents Association will be meeting at St. Joseph's school at 8 Thursday night. Our school was in a cross-country meet on Saturday in Burlington. The student council had their second meeting on Monday.

Mrs. Munkacsi's class went to the fire hall Monday morning and they will be checking their homes for safety.

Mrs. Robertson's class will be doing a theme on Halloween and they will be making cats and word booklets.

Miss Bradley's class made a Halloween display. They will be studying homes and houses in environmental studies. Their swimming lessons ended today and they will be ready for next summer. Although Mr. McGeragle's class still has more practise, Miss Bradley's class is practising on their recorders and hope to beat the challengers.

Mrs. Graham's class went to the fire hall Tuesday and they too will be testing their homes for safety.

Mr. McGeragle's class made masks for Halloween. They will be having their final test in 'Spiders', before they start their new unit 'Homes'. In math grade 4 is measuring in metric and grade 5 is solving problems. Both grades are also studying their multiplication tables.

Miss Lebel's class will be having a Bake Sale for Mission Hope. Almost everybody will be participating in the MS read-a-thon.

Mr. Morris's class is working on a Penance Celebration for Thursday. Everybody has a different part in the celebration.

SAVING TREES
One tonne of recycled waste paper can save up to 17 trees. Canadians use hundreds of thousands of high grade office paper each year, and most of it could be recycled.

Save On Panelling For Every Room In Your Home

Panelling has helped transform many dingy basements into comfortable living areas. It's easy to install, simple to maintain and durable. Real estate listings even mention panelled rooms as a selling feature. But panelling isn't just for the rec room anymore. In the newest finishes and colours, it can give a country look to your kitchen. Add a rustic touch to the family room. Or revitalize a bedroom or bathroom. Install it conventionally, horizontally or use it as wainscoting. You'll find everything to complete the job from strapping and adhesive to colour co-ordinated nails and moulding...all at Beaver!

Panelling Tip
To estimate the number of panels you need:
1. Determine the perimeter of the room (for example 12 + 12 + 20 + 20 = 64 feet)
2. Divide by 4 (64 ÷ 4 = 16 panels needed).
