

Ballinafad

Hallowe'en dance, surprise dinner

by Winifred Smith
A good time was had at the community centre on Saturday night at the annual Hallowe'en dance. Couples attending wore Hallowe'en costumes. The Ballinafad

D.J.'s provided music. The November dance will be pot luck and tickets will be sold at Shortill's store.
The cubs meet on Monday night in the community centre beginning at 7 p.m. A few more youngsters are needed before a Beaver colony can be started.

Several ladies from the Ballinafad Branch of the WI attended the area convention at Bingham Lodge Waterloo, on Monday and Tuesday of this week.

Four ladies from Ballinafad accepted the invitation for the Norval WI to attend their annual Fall Euchre party on Saturday afternoon. Previous to the card game dessert and coffee were served to the guests. It was held at the home of Mrs. May at Maple Lodge Farm. Judging from the large crowd present, it must of been a great success.

Sympathy is extended to Wilma and Garnett Sinclair and family in the loss of a dear aunt in the person of Miss Emma Cole, whose death occurred on Sunday.
On a happier note we are pleased to report Mrs. Emily Plouffe is considerably improved in her condition.
Sunday October 28 began like any other Sunday for "The Smiths" at "Tattingstone Farm". On returning home from a drive shortly after 5 p.m. however, they were surprised to see many cars parked in the driveway. It happened to be the 55th wedding anniversary of the couple. Their family did not want the occasion to just slip by without some sort of a celebration.

They completely surprised their parents as a dinner party had been arranged and kept a secret from them. On entering the home they saw a long table had been set up. Eighteen members of the family, including grandchildren along with the honored guests sat down to a roast beef dinner prepared by the older ones.
Mr. and Mrs. Tom Given had their weekend plans somewhat changed when they received word that their sister-in-law had died rather suddenly. She was Mrs. Edward Francis. We extend sympathy to the Given Family.

Delicious dining at St. John's Anglican Church with baked ham dinner Saturday, November 10. Adults $5, children $2.50, youngsters under six free. Call 856-9841 for tickets.

Halt Regional Police are still working on getting a single emergency telephone number—911—across the municipality.
The region's police commission tabled a report Thursday at Oakville from former chief Ken Skerret which detailed some of the rough costs of a uniform emergency system.
Total cost, minus the Bell Canada engineering cost, would be about $114,565.

Limehouse

Scouts enter submarine in Huck Finn raft race

by Mrs. A. Benton
We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Ryan Hutzenga and children from Hagersville. They are living in the house owned by the late Nell Benton on the Fourth Line.
Mr. and Mrs. Randy Banish Lane spent almost three weeks visiting his relatives and touring in California.
Rev. Gordon Timbers was preacher at Limehouse Presbyterian Church on Sunday while Rev. Peter Barrow was at Knox anniversary services in Georgetown. A number from Limehouse attended the Knox services where their former minister, Rev. F.N. Young of Duff's Church, Morrison, was guest preacher.
Miss Wendy Hannah, a local girl, who is training for the ministry of the United Church will preach at St. Andrew's United Church, Georgetown and at Ballinafad next Sunday morning. Beavers, Cubs and Scouts Limhouse Beavers had fun for Hallowe'en this year. Last week they made cookies and paper masks at their meeting. This week they had their party.

The Cubs spent one Saturday this month out in the area with their apples for District Apple Day. Sixteen Cubs and two Scouts showed up and for their efforts received a record amount of donations from the area residents.
Beaver parents helped drive the boys around. Beavers aren't allowed to take part in fund raising themselves, so their parents are really generous in giving their time to help the Cub and Scout sections.
The six new Cubs in the Pack who have been invested—Sean Burns, Kevin McLean, Robby Gregory, Jason Medland, Chris Pouw and Ian Johnston had their families present for the ceremony. Greg Lane has earned his tawny star and Wally Clark his pet keeper's badge.
The Scouts had a terrific time at The Huck Finn Raft Race a week ago. The rafts and the paddlers were all hand made by the troop. The race was held on Guelph

Lake and the weather was beautiful. Misfortune seemed to follow Limehouse when the raft sank before it began the race, but when an unseen hole was discovered in one oil drum a rush was made to Georgetown to secure another. Limehouse was elated to find they had not only a raft but a submarine, one up on any other troop.
They didn't go far in the race but received an award for the "effort" they made. Saturday night there was a stage show which was great—one of the most entertaining items on the show was a contest for the most beautiful legs among the troops attending. Limehouse leader Dave Schrubsole was the contestant from Limehouse and he almost won but lost by a leghair to Tim Garton from Acton. In the speed race on Sunday, Limehouse came in third. A great fun weekend was had by all.
Group committee will be holding their November meeting this Thursday, Nov. 1 at the Scout Hut at 7.30 p.m.

Eden Mills

Meeting keeps residents busy

by Mrs. W. MacDougall
The Fall Thankoffering meeting of the Presbyterian Women was held at the home of Mrs. Russell Blacklock.
Subscriptions for the Glad Tidings were renewed and one copy is to be sent to Eden House Nursing Home. Some $40. is to be forwarded to the Presbyterian treasurer for the General Fund.
Mrs. G. W. Lasby gave an outline of the Council meeting in Toronto.
Pennies for the Fellowship of the Least Coin were dedicated by Mrs. Lockett. The scripture was read by Mrs. W. McLean and readings on "Thanks" were given by Mrs. R. Blacklock and Mrs. W. Lasby.
Mr. and Mrs. E. Lockett showed some home slide pictures that were much enjoyed. Mrs. Barden closed the meeting with prayer.
Mrs. Anna Wilson thanked all those responsible for the meeting.
On Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rinehart held a party in the community hall for family and friends on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary. A beautiful arrangement of orchids and pink roses, a gift to Jean from Fred, graced the table where the guest book was signed. A tablecloth was also signed to be embroidered later. Ted Bell, Fred's cousin, extended sincere congratulations to the honored couple. Best wishes on this happy occasion with hope for many future anniversaries go to this fine couple from the whole community.

Guests at the Rinehart home were Harvey Richards from Tara; Mr. and Mrs. Don Duff, Clinton; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cavill, Chesley; Mr. and Mrs. Ken Davidson, Owen Sound; Mr. and Mrs. Don Kirkland, Hepworth and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Thomson, Unionville.
Other out-of-town guests at the festivities were Mr. and Mrs. Ross Campbell; Mr. and Mrs. George Campbell and Mr. and Mrs. Len Laing, all of Sundridge and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Nesbitt from Columbus.

Family and friends attended the christening of Cori Thomas, young son of Mr. and Mrs. George Campbell by the Rev. Russell Finley in the United Church on Sunday afternoon.
Special guests were two great grandmothers, Mrs. M. Winch and Mrs. J. Bould, both from Guelph and the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bould and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Campbell, Sundridge. Also Judy's godparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bould. A reception was hosted by Tom and Marion following the service.
Mrs. Anna Wilson attended anniversary church services at her home town, Belwood, on Sunday.

New Halton Dairy Princess Catherine Rich was crowned Friday night in Acton.

Up hunting licences
The cost of a licence for hunting pheasants, rabbits and foxes in Halton Hills is going up.
A resident will now pay $3 and a non-resident $5.
There are no restrictions on the number of licences issued to town residents, but the maximum number issued to non-residents is 200.

Police get radar books
Five Halton Regional Police officers have been hitting the books to learn as much as they can about radar training devices.
Halton officers went to Peel Regional Police Headquarters where instruction was given by people from Tri-Bar Industries, the manufacturer of Halton's equipment.

Nobody gives you a wider choice.
