A stately couple, Walter and Elizabeth Hunt of Rockwood, celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary November 4, among family and friends at the town half.

Never a fight in 50 year marriage

Neither one of us is boss-we settle disagreements peaceably."

That is how Walter and Elizabeth Hunt described their formula for happily wedded bliss as they celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary, November 4, with family and friends at the Rockwood town hall.

A half-century ago, on Monday afternoon, Walter, originally of Carlisle Ontario, and Elizabeth Weatherston, Everton lass, eloped down the road to Hamilton, Ontario. Married by a Baptist minister Walter had located in the phone book, the newly weds honeymonned Niagara-on-the-Lake and then returned to set up housekeeping in Rock-family now have ten grandchildren and six great grand children.

These days Walter enjoys "tinkering" and novelty woodworking. He has family Christmas gifts on his basement work bench now. Elizabeth made a quilt for every grandchild and then "I quit." Gardening, nousework and TV keep her busy, she says. · Granddaughter Gloria
