Percy Kitching died peacefully

By Mrs. H. McLean
Percy Kitching, a faithful member of Ebenezer Church for many years, passed away peacefully on Sunday, at the age of 95.
His devoted wife, Ella, predeceased him in 1972. Their son, Harold, is away in Africa. Their grandson John, and daughter-in-law Audrey, and their three children, Paula, Greg and Jay are contributing a great deal to the church and community with their musical gifts and hospitality.
Percy's passing seems like the end of an era. He held many offices in the church. The old church at Corwin was his original church home. At that time the residents in that area would go to Ebenezer for "quarterly meeting." When there was no longer the need for a church in Corwin, because of the improvement in driving facilities, Percy became a full member at Ebenezer. His home was built on the corner, where the Corwin church had stood. A private funeral service was held (Monday).
Next Sunday, from 2 to 5 p.m., a reception is being held in the Sunday School room, to honour Horace Blyth, for his 25 years service as Sunday School superintendent. Everyone welcome.

Emma Cole dies Oct. 21

Emma Cole died at Cher Nursing Home, Acton, October 28.
She was born in Esqueping Township October 21, 1890, the daughter of William Cole and his wife, Margaret J. Reid. She resided on Frederick Street in Acton for many years.
Her hospitality and quick wit were widely known and appreciated. She was an enthusiastic gardener and her crocus display was always an early sign of spring.
She is survived by her sister Mrs. Annie McLean and is predeceased by Mrs. Agnes McKay, Fred Cole and Mrs. Minnie Kirkwood, and James and Lavina in infancy. She is also survived and fondly remembered by many nieces and nephews.
She was a member of Knox Presbyterian church, Acton, and service was conducted by her pastor, Rev. John Robertson, from Shoemaker Funeral Home, Acton, with interment in Greenwood Cemetery, Georgetown.
Pallbearers were nephews Wm. McLean, Harvey, Wilfred and Gordon Kirkwood, Fred Dixon and Clarence Hurren.

L. Osborne dies at home

Linda Kirkwood Osborne of R.R. 4 Acton, died in her home on October 17, in her 27th year.
She was born Linda Marjorie Kirkwood, the fourth daughter in a family of five sisters and one brother.
She attended school at Dublin and Speyside and was an honors graduate of Acton High School. She had attained 4-H provincial honors and was a member of the United Church. She also taught Sunday school during her high school years.
In 1974 she married Herbert David Osborne and resided in Toronto for a brief period, returning to R.R. 4 Acton where she and her husband built a new home on the Third line. She had been employed at Northern Telecom in Weston for the past six years.
She is survived by her husband Bert and a three-month-old daughter, Rebecca Lynne. She is also survived by her parents Harvey and Marjorie Kirkwood and sisters Marilyn Cox, R.R. 3 Milton, Lois Henderson, Thelma Pettifer, Ruth French and brother John all of R. R. 4 Acton.
Funeral services were conducted from Trinity United Church, Acton, by Rev. Chuck Beaton, followed by interment in Greenwood Cemetery, Georgetown on October 20.
Pallbearers were her brother John Kirkwood, brothers-in-law, Bill Cox, Paul Henderson, Nigel Pettifer and Wayne French and cousin Brian Osborne.
Her dear smile and loving ways are engraved in hearts forever.

History of founder recalled at meeting

Mrs. John McNabb, district president, was guest speaker at the November meeting of the Acton Women's Institute.
President Miss Jean McLean, read a poem "Soldier's Prayer."
Written by General Douglas MacArthur for his son who gave his life in battle.
Plans were completed for the Christmas Pot luck luncheon and gift exchange.
Mrs. McNabb spoke on the life of Adelaide Hoodless, 32 years old who formed the Institute. The Institute is now world-wide.
Adelaide Hoodless lectured to raise money and was responsible for the organization of YWCA in Canada. National Council of Women. Victorian Order of Nurses. Farmers Institute and the first Institute.
Mrs. McNabb displayed the Brownridge family tree, and gave an interesting talk on the work involved in putting together one's family tree.
A very pleasant afternoon was spent with Institute "Grace" was said.

Ross Pearson (left) and Dale Stewart were welcomed from the Beaver fold to the first Acton Cubs 'B' Pack last week by Scouter Bill Inglis. Cub 'Keeo' Rob Leopardi looks on. A 'Keeo' is like a chaperone to new Cubs and will remain with the newcomers until they find themselves comfortable in their new surroundings.

Meeting

Regional health and social services committee will start holding regular meetings in Halton Centennial Manor.
Committee chairman Walter Mulkewich said these would take place once every two months.
The committee has also authorized Halton Manor administrator Jack Charlton to arrange a tour of at least two other homes for the aged in the Metro Toronto area.

Use of prayer checked

Adherence to the Ministry of Education's rule regarding the use of the Lord's Prayer in Halton classrooms will be checked in the wake of controversy in Toronto.
Burlington separate school trustee Bill Frier asked if the staff would find out for sure what is going on in the classrooms with respect to the rules about prayers.

New member is welcomed

by Mrs. Emily Price
Here we are into the fall and winter season with the hustle and bustle of preparing for Christmas, the shopping and the making of cakes, pudding etc. Even though it is a busy time, it's exciting, and is a time to think of those less fortunate than ourselves, and lend a helping hand in some way.
We had a very good meeting on October 30 when many items of interest were discussed, some to be dealt with at our next meeting when we hope more people will be able to attend and voice their opinions.
Due to illnesses and other commitments, many of our members were unable to attend, but we were very happy to welcome a new member into the organization.
Following the meeting a number of games were played, a lunch was served.
Our next meeting to be held at M.Z. Bennett school on Tuesday, November 27 will be a crafts night with a ceramic display and demonstration. A sale of the items shown will also be offered, so let us hope for a good turnout to give the lady coming a good welcome.
Anyone interested will be welcomed as it should be an interesting and informative meeting.
Sunday swimming will be at 11 a.m. starting in January, but until then, the regular 10.30 starting time is in effect.

One bid

After contacting seven firms to put in bids for cab and chassis rental, the town of Halton Hills only received one bid.
Monday evening at council, McCleave Leasing was awarded the contract at $1,350 a month for four months.

Dorothy Hillon was on hand Saturday for the Trinity United Church's Christmas bazaar. She sold homemade splices.
