St. Joseph's School by Rhonda Barrett and Helen Lampkin

Because of a train derailment most of the residents of Mississauga were ordered to evacuate. Three of the children, David Mitchell, Brenda Mitchell and Mary Brozic have come to St. Joseph's school.

We finally have our two rooms painted and we would like to thank Mr. Chatten and Mrs. Doherty for allowing us to use their library while the rooms were being painted.

Tomorrow (Thursday) there will be another Parent Association meeting. It will be held in the St. Joseph's church hall at 8 p.m. Special guest will be Hartley Sherk, school board trustee.

Mrs. Munkaci's kindergarten went to the IGA supermarket. They are also setting up a supermarket in their classroom and looking at the size and area of boxes.

Mrs. Robertson's grade ones had a class mass today. They will also be starting a new unit, Teeth.

Mrs. Graham's grade twos and threes will be beginning a unit on a fishing community. Last week they sent some stories to the Legion about Remembrance Day.

Miss Bradley's grade threes and fours now have four reading groups instead of three. For art they made houses out of cardboard boxes, popicle sticks, toothpicks and clay. The student of the week is Chris Vickery.

Mr. McGeagle's grade fours and fives are doing charcoal shading for art. In math the grade fours are practicing multiplication facts and whole numbers. In math the

The First Beavers' "B" Colony invested 18 new members plus leaders recently. Beavers are Greg Cockburn, Jason Cockburn, Mitch Edwards, Nelson Hammond, Eric Heagle, Robert Heagle, Jason Higgins, Michael Hignett, Drew Lampkin, Michael McMahon, Ian Munday, Brian Riches, Darren Whitton and Jeffrey Willis. The leaders are John Edwards, Terry Kinnon and Ronnie Lampkin. Kero is Robbie Leopold. Absent for the photo were Chris McGeagle, Kyle Thompson and Morgan Vaughan.

First steps toward the 1980 Acton Fall Fair were made Wednesday by the Ladies' Division of the Acton Agricultural Society.

The convenors of the various hall committees reported on planned changes in the prize list. This is the first step in the long process of getting the list of exhibits into the hands of the exhibitors. It is hoped this early start will mean the prize lists will be mailed early in the new year.

A new class will be introduced this year. A category for needlework representing the culture of another country is planned. Other changes in the list are part of the routine effort to improve the fair and keep up interest in the exhibits. The Canada Packers Quilt Collection has been booked as an exhibit. Members who have viewed the quilts have been impressed by the display.

President Carmela Cobham reported on the District Annual Meeting attended by Mrs. Cobham and Mrs. R. Cookley. Mrs. Cookley's quilt, grand champion of the 1979 Acton Fair, placed third in the District level of the Canada Packers' Quilt Competition. The role of the Ladies' Division and recruitment of new members were among the topics discussed. Plans are in the works for a district judges school. Each fair will probably be able to send two members.

The December meeting will be a Christmas party. The evening will start with a dinner at the Wooden Heart Restaurant followed by a social evening at the library. Mrs. Ruth Linham, Mrs. Erna McEwen and Mrs. Eleanor Thompson will be in charge of the arrangements.

Brendan Aherne re-elected chairman

Brendan Aherne was re-elected chairman of the Community Services Centre board of directors at their annual meeting last Wednesday. Eric Balkind is vice-chairman and Peter Marks treasurer.

New board members are Alma Sweetman and Bob Andrews. A letter will be sent to appropriate officials and departments expressing strong concern at the lack of health services in Acton. There is presently only a part-time public health nurse and she will be through in February. The Block Parents program, which had been turned over to a committee, will be returned to the Community Services Centre, board members agreed. Committee members had become too busy to continue with the program of information. Letters home from schools and the recruiting of new Block Parents. Participants have continued to show the signs in their homes, however. Contact with them will be made again, through the Community Services Centre.

Lionie Harkins announced the centre now has a registered number for charitable donations. In her annual report, co-ordinator Terry Grubbe presented figures which show the use of the centre steadily increasing. Statistics are up in all departments

Councillor is speaker

The Lakeside Chapter 1010E meeting was held Tuesday Nov. 6 at the Royal Canadian Legion.

John McDonald gave a most interesting talk and showed pictures of Acton Early and Present Days. Kit Dowding opened the meeting. Lucille Cookley and Helen Jacques had presented the Bursaries at Commencement. Cheryl Springle won the Clara Grindley Bursary and Margaret Anger and Tracy Tyler won the Lakeside Bursaries.
