

Stage set for Sunday night battle

The stage is set for the battle of the industrial league season next Sunday night when Lakeview Centre and Blow Press take to the ice in a battle of the undefeated.

Lakeview Centre came close to suffering their first defeat when Acton Terminal came up with two goals in the first period but rallied to take a 3-2 lead by the mid-point of the second stanza. Lakeview fought back evening the count by the end of the second and then added two unanswered markers in the final frame.

George McPhail paced the ATW attack scoring twice while Ed Hillier picked up assists on all three Warehouse efforts. Jim Cooney added the other ATW goal with Ken Slaney and Al White also picking up assists. Glen McKenzie paced the win for Lakeview counting a goal and a pair of assists. Jim Taggett contributed a pair of goals to the Centre cause with Floyd Hillier and Bart Jacobs picking up a goal and an assist each. Ron Schmidt, Steve Atkinson and Vince Thornton were the other Lakeview point getters picking up an assist each.

Blow Press and Heller's played a scoreless hockey game for the first 30 minutes of their match but then the Pressmen went to the attack netting four goals before the second frame ended giving them control of the contest.

Heller's got one back early in the third period before Blow Press was able to find the mark for the fifth and what would be final time of the game.

Steve Townsley and Evan Hayter counted the other assists. All players but Cleaners' goaltender Bill Routledge shared in the points for their team with Fred Allen and George Artem leading the way on the scoresheet with two goals and an assist each.

Family Cleaners moved into third spot, ahead of both Van's Welding and Acton Terminal Warehouse, with their 10-3 win over Van's.

Family built up an early 5-0 lead in the contest before Van's put their act together netting three straight markers to pull close. The sixth Family marker with five minutes remaining in the second stanza seemed to take any remaining life from the Welders.

Gary Pickles counted two in the losing effort for Van's while Gary Moore counted the other goal, also picking up an assist.

PeeWees drop another pair

Acton Major Pee-wees continue to have trouble winning hockey games in the Waterloo-Wellington league this season but each time out is showing marked improvement, according to manager Al McKerracher.

In action this past week the Major Pee-wees dropped a 5-3 decision to Woolwich and a 3-2 squeaker to New Hamburg.

Acton managed the game's first goal against Woolwich as Sandy Waites found the range from Heath Norton but the locals could not hold on to the lead as Woolwich came back to take a 2-2 lead at the end of one period. Ted Morrissette netted the second Acton goal with Norton and Terry Danagher earning others.

Douglas Bassett says thank you.

Every week I expect the exceptional, from a very exceptional group of people — the people who publish and produce the Inland newspapers. Every week, they perform the exceptional. But when the now-famous train derailment took place less than half a mile from The Mississauga News and Inland printing plant — shutting us down completely — the people of Inland had to go beyond the exceptional. I am proud and pleased to acknowledge a literally superhuman effort — and to say sincere "Thank you!" to every one of them.
