

Gibson — Synnott vows pledged

A honeymoon in Kentucky followed the October 20 wedding of Theresa Elizabeth Synnott and Grant Eric Gibson.

The bride is the daughter of Leo and Lucy Synnott, 20 Kingham Rd. She is a sewing machine operator at Superior Glove. The groom is the son of Art and Orma Gibson, R.R. 2 Guelph, and is a salesman with Art Gibson Inc.

Father Leo Speagle officiated at the double ring ceremony in St. Joseph's Church. Mrs. Salt provided the organ music and Helen Fowler was soloist.

Escorted down the aisle by her father, Theresa wore a long white polyester gown with a shawl and carried silk flowers of Talisman roses and white carnations.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Leona Christie, was matron of honor. The groom's sister-in-law, Mrs. Daphne Gibson, was bridesmaid and a niece, Kimberly Vlaser, was flowergirl. The attendants wore short beige dresses with orchids throughout, while the flowergirl wore a short white eyelet dress and carried white and yellow carnations.

Charles Thibeau was his friend's best man. Cameron Gibson, brother of the groom, was usher and Sean Gibson, the groom's nephew, was ringbearer.

Doug Christie was master of ceremonies at a dinner and dance at the Acton Music Centre. Grace was said by the bride's uncle and toast to the bride was said by Bert Fowler, a good friend. The wedding cake was made by friends Mr. and Mrs. A. Van Opstal, Milton, and several showers held by Mrs. William Synnott, Guelph; Mrs. Bert Fowler, Acton; Mrs. Fred Andrews, Acton; and sisters of the bride, A. Stag and Doe party was held by the best man.

The Catholic Women's League bake sale and bazaar at Acton Legion was a huge success. Many people turned out to pick up bargains and baked goods. Alice Waldie took time to purchase a grocery bundle ticket from Marie Musselle. Lois Gordon was the eventual winner of the bundle.

Planning director posted

Halton Region has a new director of planning. He is Hasheed Mohammed, a member of the regional planning staff, and he will fill the position left vacant Sept.

with the resignation of Ed Cumming. One of Mr. Mohammed's first jobs will be to prepare a report on the restructuring of the planning department. Regional councillors are split on whether or not the position now left open by Mr. Mohammed's promotion should be filled or left open in light of the regional staff hiring freeze.

Milton mayor Don Gordon feels the position should not be filled due to the current expansion. Shot glasses, Melody Smith; copper tea pot, Father Speagle; candle holder, J. Lindsay-McIntrye vows November 3

St. Joseph's Catholic Church was the setting for the November wedding of Kimberly Dawn McIntrye and David (Red) James Lindsay.

Father Leo Speagle officiated at the double ring ceremony with Mrs. A. Salt providing the organ music.

Kim is the daughter of Lloyd and Doreen McIntrye, 42 Young St., Acton, and is a bookkeeper with Thompson Fuels. Red is the son of Robert Lindsay and the late Helen Lindsay, R.R. 1, Limehouse. He is co-owner of Laing Construction.

Escorted down the aisle by her father, Kim wore a white floor length gown of jersey material with a sweetheart neck and lace trim on the top of the dress and bottom of the skirt. A picture hat trimmed with the same lace held a veil. She carried a bouquet of silk yellow roses with baby's breath. She also wore a diamond necklace borrowed from her aunt Mrs. June Drysdale and diamond earrings from Mrs. Karen Williams.

Matron of honor was Kathy Williams, Acton, a friend of the bride and Mary-Lou Lindsay, R.R. 1, Limehouse, sister of the groom was bridesmaid. Terry Lindsay, niece of the groom, was flowergirl.

The attendants wore floor length rust colored dresses with long sleeves and round neck. They carried bouquets of silk flowers of baby's breath, and rust tulle.

Gord Williams, friend of the groom, Acton, was bestman. Steve McIntrye, R.R. 1, Acton, brother of the bride and Bob Lindsay, Acton, brother of the groom were ushers.

At an evening reception and dance held at Acton Meadows Golf Course, the mother of the bride received wearing a floor length jade green gown. Heather Lindsay received for her brother dressed in a wine colored dress.

Guests admired a cake made by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Betty McIntrye, and decorated by Mrs. Mona Storey. The bride's uncle, Bob Brown, Burlington, was master of ceremonies.

Special guests at the wedding were the groom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. McLaughlin, R.R. 1, Limehouse, and grandparents of the bride, Mrs. William McIntrye, Mrs. P. Landry, and Mr. and Mrs. O. Brown, all of Acton.

Prior to her wedding day, Kim was guest of honor at many showers. Miscellaneous showers were held by Mrs. Karen Williams and Mrs. Lois Norton; for the Lindsay family by Mrs. Shelley Lindsay; Terri Yalowica and Mrs. Joan Yalowica; for the McIntrye family by the bride's aunt Mrs. Betty McIntrye; and Theresa Hanley, Mrs. Ann DeForest and Mrs. Pat Frizzel. A pantry shower was held by Mrs. Fowler and Mrs. Barb Dance. A trousseau tea was held at the home of the bride's mother and a stag was held for Red at the Rockwood town hall.

Following a honeymoon to Los Angeles and Las Vegas, the couple made their home at 30 Main St. N.

God's Country.

The natural beauty of Israel is something to behold. The Negev desert with its violet mountains, yellow canyons, rare wildlife and unique vegetation. The dazzling coral of the Red Sea where you'll see some of the most remarkable colors ever viewed underwater.

The nature reserve of Hai Bar where biblical animals such as the ibex, gazelle, and oryx antelope roam freely. The Mediterranean grottoes of Rosh Hanikra where splashing waves become rainbows.

The Sea of Galilee at sunrise. The stillness of the Dead Sea at sunset.

But there is another kind of beauty, too, that is Israel. A beauty that can be felt in Jerusalem, Bethlehem, Hebron, Nazareth, Jericho. For Israel is the land of the Bible.

Come visit us. Your Travel Agent can tell you about the new low fares and tours to Israel.
