

Acton Sabres played one of their most inspired games at the Acton Community Centre Saturday night and despite dropping a 12-4 setback did things they hadn't been doing all year. Brad Buchanan keeps a close eye on an Orillia Travelway forward while goaltender Rob Bremner watches the puck.

In-n-outers win squeakers

Acton's In-n-out midget reps continue to keep on top of the Waterloo-Wellington league. Over the past week they scored two key wins and a tie.

The In-n-outers edged Fergus 5-3 at home and then took a 3-2 victory and three points of a possible four as they scored a 3-2 win and a 4-4 tie with Orangeville.

Mike Monahan paced the Acton attack in the Fergus match netting a pair of goals while Mark Duval, Gary Lumbers and Denis Kirton adding singles. Duval was the playmaker of the game earning two assists while Monahan, Lumbers, Randy Smith, Rick Greenley and Derek Hodgson counted solo helpers.

Acton never trailed in the match as they built up a 2-0 lead and then maintained that edge over the remainder of the contest.

The Orangeville matches were on the rough side with each team picking up several penalties in each of the two matches.

Acton jumped on Orangeville early in the game at the Acton Community Centre and controlled the game with a 3-0 lead early in the middle stanza. The Orangeville crew fought back with two goals, forcing the In-n-outers to hold on over the final 13 minutes to score the win.

Gary Lumbers, Gord McArthur and Rob Vermeulen counted the Acton goals with Dei Mohamad, Mike Monahan and Tim Ferguson adding assists.

In Orangeville the In-n-outers fell behind 1-0 on an early first period goal but rallied to take a 3-1 lead into the final frame. This time the In-n-outer team could not stall the Orangeville attack as they fired three goals in five minutes forcing Acton to rally for the tie.

Gary Lumbers notched the equalizer for the In-n-outers with only 3:27 remaining to play. Lumbers, Gord McArthur and Rick Greenley added the other Acton markers. Del Mohamad, McArthur, Derek Hodgson, Denis Kirton, Randy Smith and Rob Vermeulen picked up helpers for the In-n-outers.

Moms near potential

Acton Minor Atom Hockey Moms split Waterloo-Wellington games over the past week as they found an extra scoring punch in beating Fergus 7-1, but fell 5-3 to Woolwich in a squeaker.

The Hockey Moms led three times in the Woolwich match but ran out of gas over the final period as they allowed the visitors two unanswered goals and the win.

John Van Dam fired the first two Acton goals in the contest and Carl Yaroschak added the final local marker from Lee Yaroschak and Greg Leatherland.

Leatherland was not disappointed in his team's performance. "It was a great game with plenty of scoring chances for each team," says Leatherland. "Our team is finally beginning to play near their full potential."

Greg Leatherland paced the Acton scoring spree against Fergus, firing three goals while Carl Yaroschak counted two and Frank Katsilieras and Craig Cadenhead netted singles. Yaroschak added three assists giving him a five point game while Katsilieras picked up a pair of helpers. Single assists went to Leatherland, Rob Murray and John Van Dam.

"The team really hustled and were full value for the win," commented Leatherland. "The defence cleared the puck well and Evan Hayter made some excellent saves in goal."

Volleyballers stopped

Eventual champion W.I. Dick stopped a strong effort from McKenzie Smith 15-5, 15-3 in the semi-final round of the North Halton girls volleyball championships Wednesday at E.C. Drury School in Milton.

W.I. Dick went on to capture the title with a strong comeback to down host Drury School.

W.I. Dick downed Drury two games to one in the championship series to take the title. W.I. Dick dropped the first game 15-10 but rebounded to win the second 15-8 and the deciding match 15-13 to advance to the county finals tonight, also at the Drury School at 6 p.m.

In the final game, Drury jumped to an 8-3 lead before Dick fought back to tie the score at 12 then take the championship 15-13.

It marks the third consecutive year the W.I. Dick girls have advanced to the county championships. They join the boys from Centennial (Georgetown).

W.I. Dick finished the round-robin portion of the event on top with a 9-1 record followed by Drury at 8-2. Centennial was 6-4.

McKenzie Smith was 5-5 while Stewarttown and Brookville trailed with 1-9 records.

The Drury team enjoyed their best finish ever in the North Halton league. Their strength lay in their outstanding overhead drives.

W.I. Dick was the power of the tourney, showing the effects of practice since the first week of September. The squad has a 50-6 record in exhibition and league games.

Free Press Juveniles lose

The Acton Free Press has taken over the sponsorship of Acton Juveniles after their one year absence from the Waterloo-Wellington ranks.

The Free Press Juveniles played solid hockey in the early season and continued to do so last week as they were only one second away from playing two games without a loss.

The Juvies topped Elora 5-1 at home last Tuesday night and Wednesday held on until just one second remained against Hespeler before allowing the fifth goal in a 5-4 loss.

Trefor Gardener and Dave Lawson each fired a pair of markers for the Juvies in their win over Elora with Marty Collerton adding the other.

Steve Mitchell and Frank Noseworthy shared the goaltending duties for Acton.

In the contest with Hespeler the Free Pressers picked up a two goal performance from Marty Collerton while Rick McNabb and Rob Evans added the others.

Rob Evans was the playmaker of the game with three assists while Paul Campbell counted two.
