Free Pressers nip Fergus 1-0

The Acton Free Press are keeping their Waterloo-Wellington record around the 500 mark through the first half of the season. Over the past week the Pressmen dropped a 4-3 decision to Orangeville before winning the squeaker of the season, a 1-0 victory over Fergus.

The Free Pressers fell behind early in the Orangeville match trailing 2-0 after the opening frame. The Juvies settled down in the final stanzas outscoring the opposition 3-2 but still coming up on the short end.

Rob Evans netted two goals for Acton with Rick McNabb firing the other. Trefor Gardener earned two assists for Acton while Gary Williams counted a single.

The Fergus match was highlighted by outstanding goaltending with both teams having several good scoring opportunities.
