

Heller's escape industrial cellar

Lakeview Centre came within five minutes of dropping their first game in the 1979-80 Acton Industrial League season Sunday night as they needed three late goals to rally for a 6-5 win over Family Cleaners and hold on to first place.

In other games Heller's continued their comeback as they moved past Van's Welding and Family Cleaners by scoring a convincing 6-2 win over the Welders. Blow Press maintained pace with Lakeview at the top of the league, scoring a 2-0 victory over Acton Terminal Warehouse.

The Sunday night slate started off with Heller's and Van's meeting in a game that would leave a lone combatant in the cellar. From the start it looked as if the Heller bunch would remain where they have been since the first week of the season. Van's got on the board at the one minute mark of the opening frame and it looked as if they would score the win but it was more than two periods and four Heller's goals before they regained any scoring potential.

Heller's finished the scoring with two late third period goals giving them the 6-2 win. Jeff Townsley paced the second Heller's win of the season with a pair of goals while Dave Thompson, Lorne Gordon, John Ashley and Russ Van Fleet fired singles.

Randy McIntyre and Bob Jarrett were the playmakers of the day for Heller's earning a pair of assists while John McCutcheon, Jeff Townsley, Russ Van Fleet, Dave Thompson and John Ashley picked up singles.

Oliver Cooper and Brent Irwin netted the twine for Van's with Garry Moore assisting on both markers and Steve Townsley helping on a single.

Lakeview Centre was hardpressed for the win in their match with Family Cleaners as the Cleaners led all the way until the final five minutes.

Five different players shared the Cleaners scoring with Bill Manes, Ernie Ruck, Fred Allen, George Artem and Tim McIntyre earning markers.

Tim McIntyre and Fred Allen picked up two assists each for the losers while Jim Poisk, Joe DeForest, Bill Manes and goaltender Bill Routledge earned single helpers.

The league's top two point-getters, Steve Atkinson and Bart Jacobs did the majority of the damage for the Cleaners.

Atkinson earned three goals and an assist while Jacobs picked up a pair of each. Glen McKenzie added the other Lakeview goal while Floyd Hillier and Ron Schmidt picked up a pair of assists each. Ron Mellon and Jim Haggett added single helpers.

In action this Sunday Blow Press and Family Cleaners meet in a 7 p.m. battle. At 8:20 p.m. Heller's will attempt to keep their string alive when they meet Acton Terminal Warehouse. Lakeview Centre and Van's will do battle in the nightcap at 9:40 p.m.

Hockey Moms humbled

Acton Minor Atom Hockey Moms bit off more than they could chew recently as they travelled to Bradford for a tournament with players of major atom age.

The tourney results were not good for the Moms as they dropped three straight decisions to the older players, losing a 10-1 match to Unionville, a 6-0 score to Bolton and then suffered a 5-1 setback at the hands of host Bradford.

Craig Cadenhead fired the lone Acton goal in the Unionville match from Greg Leatherland while Leatherland netted the twine from John Van Dam and Frank Katsilieris.

After returning from the tournament the Hockey Moms had trouble getting unwound dropping a 10-1 decision to Orangeville.

John Van Dam fired the lone Acton goal with Todd Lazenby and Troy Foster earning helpers on the third period goal.

Acton's only recent win came last Wednesday when they handled New Hamburg by an 8-1 count.

John Van Dam, Craig Cadenhead and Greg Leatherland shared the scoring honors for Acton in that game counting two each while Wayne MacEachern and Todd Lazenby added singles. Carl Yaroschak and John Van Dam earned two assists each for the Moms

Midgets keep record intact

Ed's In-n-out Midgets continued their winning ways in Waterloo-Wellington League action this week, but not without some anxious moments.

The In-n-outers pushed their record to ten wins and four ties in 14 matches scoring an 8-3 win over Woolwich before battling Hespeler to a 5-5 tie.

At home to Woolwich

the Acton side came out in a hurry firing two goals over the opening ten minutes to take control of the match. Woolwich netted a lone marker before the first frame ended pulling to within one before Acton exploded for three unanswered second period tallies to take a comfortable lead. The locals outscored Woolwich 3-2 over the final 15 minutes for the win.

Gary Lumbers was the only In-n-outer to light the lamp twice while Del Mohamad, Gord McArthur, Randy Smith, Mike Monahan, Denis Kirton and Rob Vermeulen counted singles.

Vermeulen was the playmaker of the game for Acton earning helpers on two goals while Tim Evans, Tim Ferguson, Mike Monahan, Derek Hodgson, Gary Lumbers, Rick Smith and Denis Kirton helping on singles.

Tim Baker was between the pipes for Acton in the match.

The Hespeler contest started off quick with all ten goals being scored in the opening two periods.

Acton jumped to a quick 2-0 lead in the match before Hespeler got on the board with their first before the game was four minutes old. Acton extended their lead to 4-1 with 3:44 remaining in the opening stanza but a tally with only four seconds left in the period gave Hespeler new life.

remaining in the second to regain the lead. Hespeler netted their final marker with 52 seconds remaining in the period.

Acton goaltender Dave Hespeler shooters at bay for the final 15 minutes while the In-n-out attack stalled at the other end of the ice.

The In-n-outers picked up 20 minutes in penalties in the match while Hespeler was tagged with 24.

Bantams revenge loss to Orangeville

Acton Rotary Minor Bantams avenged their only loss of the season recently and took two more victories as they pushed their season record to 10 wins, one loss and a tie.

The Rotary Bants outdid Orangeville 5-1 to revenge their earlier loss to that club in a game Acton coach Ruddy Holmes considered clean in comparison to the match a week ago.

Lorenzo Civiero picked up a pair of goals for the Acton team with Jim Richard, Vince Danagher and Troy McNaught adding singles. McNaught, Civiero, Danagher, David McKnight and Rick Dodds picked up single helpers.

Acton led 2-0 at the end of the first period and 3-0 at one point in the middle stanza before Orangeville got on the board.

Outstanding goaltending by Tim McKendry saved the bantams from their second defeat of the season when they downed Woolwich 3-1.

Randy Coverdale netted two short-handed goals for the Rotarians while Chris Hicks added the other.

Richard, Dodds, McKnight, Paul Cargill, Bruce Canary and David Hillie counted assists.

In Fergus on Saturday the Acton team played a solid defensive game scoring a 4-0 shut-out. Coverdale, Dodds, Richard and Civiero fired the Acton tallies with Danagher, McNaught, Richard and Richard Kilpatrick netting helpers.

"It was an excellent game," said Ruddy Holmes.

Hespeler evened the count by the mid-point of the middle stanza forcing Acton to net a fifth marker with 2:26
