

December is busy month for Acton Figure Skating Club

by Mona Petrillo
December is a busy month for the Acton Figure Skating Club.

All the hard work and practice by senior skaters, during the fall, will be exhibited on December 20 during the club competition. The categories skaters will be competing in are: beginners free skate, girls; beginners free skate, boys; similar dance, girls; pre-juvenile, girls;

juvenile, girls; girls interpretative; mixed dance; pre-novice, girls; novice, girls; junior girls; boys free skate; and senior girls.

Yaworsky, Wanda Hardy, Paul Purty, Kevin Cargill, Terri Lee Jawett, Dana Petrillo.

Elementary Bodge: Valerie Kekic, Jennifer Yaworsky, Kerrie Cripps, Lynn Cripps. Novice I: Ron Barker, Anela Nikic, Basic: Chris Griggs, Kandice Hannah, Eva Sansom.

Dance I: Kara Leatherland, Wendy Norton, Bradley O'Neill, Paula McPherson, Michelle Perny, Paul Mitchell.

Novice II: Lisa Krzyzik, Jackie Lloyd. Skating club members have been hard at work on several fund raising programs to cover a significant deficit in the club's budget. A bake sale was held in November and raffle tickets have been on sale for several weeks. The draw for $50, a wall hanging, a pair of wall plaques, a doll and two magic sleds will be held December 17 and will be the highlight of the club's major project, a skate-a-thon. The skater in each level, le, pre-school through Senior B, who receives the most contributions, each session on the 17th the skaters will be given treats as well as a visit with Santa.

Santa Claus made a surprise visit to the Acton Figure Skating Club's annual party and skate-a-thon at the community centre Monday afternoon. Here, Santa spends some time talking to the pre-school age group.
