Curling Capers

by Karen Archibald
With the festive season now upon us and the Christmas spirit permeating the club, the curling spirit seems to also have reached a festive high.
The Monday night 7-9 draw has two rinks tied with five wins apiece. Karl Brundie's rink of F. Barber, M. Sprowl and M. Storey will have to keep pace with Ken Phillips rink of S. Beemer, G. Chapman, G.

Lucas, Peter Ginn's rink of B. Phillips, L. Bradley and J. McCutcheon is running a close second. Good luck to all concerned.
Monday 9-11 has Carl Rosenquist's rink of M. McArthur, and S. Buchanan in first spot with six good wins. To date Fred Archibald's rink along with the rink skipped by Bruce McArthur are right behind Carl with five wins. It's not going to be easy is it Fred?

Tuesday night the 8-10 draw has Brian Moore's rink of P. Near, L. Slingerland, and C. Schumacher battling it out with Mel Blow's rink of J. Mellon, W. Korpela and C. Tunney. Brian, you seem to be in there to the bitter end every time. Good luck to all!
The Wednesday afternoon ladies seem to be all evenly matched with four wins tied for the lead. With only a couple of games left to play this draw should have an interesting conclusion.
The four skips involved in this tight match are Kris Bruce, Evelyn Cadenhead, Marilyn McArthur and Anne Ridley. Anne you certainly have been doing well as skip. Congratulations!

challenge match. Evelyn said she learned a lot from you, Sue. A game between teacher and pupil is always interesting.
Two rinks have slipped ahead with four wins apiece in Friday 7-9 action. John Mintern and Graham Peel are the respective skips. Four rinks are running a close second with three wins each. Richard Hignett, Ken Phillips, Chris Geggie and Pat Chamberlain are the skips of these close running rinks. Things could be interesting here early in the new year.
Friday 9-11
Well, well, Mr. Cripps, you've slipped ahead with four wins to date which makes you and your rink leader of the pack in Friday 9-11 action. Some say your rink should have been changed this year. Oh well the year is yet incomplete.
Richard Bruce's rink, along with Bruce McArthur's, Doug Appleyard's and Fred Archibald's are right on your tail Bill. You know things are not going to be so smooth running for you after Christmas.
By the way Evelyn, rumour has it you're good at beating the boys on Friday nights. Keep up the good work.
The Club held its annual Christmas Turkey shoot last Friday evening with winners receiving gift certificates from Lowell's Meat Market. Winners from the ladies' draw were Donna Cripps and Karen Archibald each winning twice. Sorry Jean, but given the opportunity I'd do it again.
Dinna-- maybe you and I should show our Acton Redman Bob McClure sets for a shot during the opening round of the Redmen Tourney against M.M. Robinson. The Redmen had a poor offensive game netting only 20 points.

Thursday night ladies action Evelyn Cadenhead's rink of Karen Archibald, Jean Lumbers and Mary Caseley has six wins and no losses to their credit while Sue Patrick's rink is running a close second with five wins. Thursday night's game could have been very interesting. Sue, if circumstances had been different. Maybe we should have a

500 Club
Lucky winners in this week's Acton Minor Hockey (Waterloo-Wellington) 500 Club draw include Ed Leatherland 374, Bruce Chapman 471, Jeff Townsley 65, Marilyn McArthur 254, and Eileen Melody 419.
Last week the winners were Wayne Noseworthy 91, Joan McKnight 37, F. Keresmen 182, Archie Papillon 79, and Craig Weldon 121.

Lions lose

Acton Lions Major Pee-wees continued their fine play of late Saturday despite dropping a 7-6 decision to the Fergus Green Machine.
The Lions started the season out slow but have been picking up lately, knocking off top placed Elora and falling just short of giving Fergus their second loss of the season.
Mike Hudson paced the Acton attack against Fergus firing three markers and assisting on another pair. David Thomas and Terry Danagher netted the other Acton markers with Sandy Waites earning three assists and Heath Norton a single.
The Lions played the Green Machine even in the first frame splitting four goals. The middle stanza was the most productive for the Lions as they netted three markers giving them a 5-4 lead heading into the final ten minutes.
"It was a good offensive effort," said Acton manager Al McKerracher. "The majority of the Acton goals were a result of accurate passing."
The loss leaves the Lions record at three wins and 12 defeats.
