Ospringle

Brownies up to Guides

by Doris Flies
During the Christmas holidays the Ospringle Brownies scattered their rays of sunshine. They enjoyed carolling to the Senior Citizens in Erin and delivering meals for Meals on Wheels in Acton. They are grateful and send a thank you to Mrs. Heyden and Denny's Bus Lines for transportation to Erin.
The Brownies are resuming their meetings after the holidays, and Heidi Schotsch, Julie Lewandowski, Melanie Paterson and Sheryl Brown have earned their Golden Hand, and will be going on to Guides. Congratulations girls.
If you would like an evening of entertainment playing euchre, Knox Church at Ospringle will be holding one on Saturday, Jan. 26, beginning at 8 p.m. Keep that date in mind. There will be prizes and refreshments.
Gazing at my green lawn through the rain in mid-January, I wondered if I should be getting out the lawn mower instead of the snow shovel. Some wires must have tangled somewhere between here and Victoria, as they got our snowstorm and we have been getting their rains.
The Physical Education Department sent two co-op students to Ospringle school for a couple of days. The children had a happy time learning folk dancing. The progress made in two periods to each class was very gratifying.
Dessert sale day on Friday had to be postponed, as there was no school. School buses didn't run because of bad weather conditions.
Ospringle school started 1980 with a total of 139 students.

Greenock W.I.

Dehydrated food topic

by Mrs. H.A. Gates
The January meeting of Greenock Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. C. Allan in Acton.
Mrs. J. Addison chaired the meeting. Meditations were given by Mrs. C. Aitken.
Roll call was answered by 15 members.
Bring a dehydrated food that you use was the meeting topic. Among these were home dried butternuts and sage parsley with a lively discussion afterward.
Mrs. J. McCulloch read from some Herbal Teas for Health and Pleasure by Donald Law.
Mrs. A. Leslie told of her personal experiences in freezing of vegetables, fruits, meats, poultry, and fish. Publication 504 is available on frozen food by sending a request to the Ministry of Agriculture and Food.
Buying foods on special and freeze in ready to use portions was recommended.
Mrs. R. Sinclair spoke from a personal experience and open discussion with our group on their experiences as well on home canning in glass sealers. Passport to Survival by Esther Dickey explained our four main foods: wheat, salt, honey and milk.
A senior Women's Institute course on tailoring pants will be attended by members of our group at Wellington Place, Elora in March.
Officers Conference will be held in May for presents and members at large at Waterloo University.
An invitation was read to visit the Erland Lee F.W.I.C. home by individuals and by appointment for groups.
On Jan. 17 we will gather at the home of Mrs. C. Aitken to hear Mrs. G. Wallace's visit to the F.W.I.C.'s Conference last year at Saskatoon.
Our February meeting will be held at Mrs. J. Addison's home.

Churchill

Baptism performed

by Mrs. J. Turner
The Sacrament of Infant Baptism was celebrated Sunday morning at Churchill. Rev. E.M. Jenkins preached on the significance of baptism, and the responsibility assumed by both the parents and the congregation to provide a loving and caring environment for the spiritual development of the child. Corie Denny sang a solo "Father in Heaven We Thank Thee".

January 9. The funeral was held Saturday at Shoemaker Funeral Home, with interment at Churchill.

Mr. and Mrs. Randy Walker presented their baby daughter for baptism. Christina Kelly Ann was dressed in a white satin lace christening gown, trimmed with seed pearls and satin ribbon, with matching cape and bonnet.
Eight grandparents were present for the ceremony: grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Johnston, RR 3 Acton, and Mrs. and Mrs. James Walker, Hespeler, great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh MacPherson, Eden Mills, and great-great grandparents Mrs. A.M. MacPherson, Acton, and Mrs. W.H. Wood, Guelph. After the service, the christening party returned to Barbara and Randy's home on the First Line for brunch.

Sympathy is extended to the family of Mrs. Annie Snyder Moore, who passed away Wednesday, 37-39 Mill St. E., Acton

Markells depart

by Mrs. W. MacDougall
Mr. and Mrs. Ron Markell have left the village to take up residence in Guelph. Anna will be missed very much as she has been an active worker with the Brownies and in other community activities. Sincere best wishes go with them to their new home.
Mr. and Mrs. Ted Barden enjoyed a New Year's visit with their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Barden in Cornwall. Ted and Ev then crossed over the border to Lake Placid for a lovely skating holiday.
The January meeting of the Community Club was held on Monday night. They still need a volunteer for the entertainment committee. Due to the weather conditions the annual Christmas tree burning has been cancelled.
Congratulations to Mrs. Elsie Miller, now of
