

Father Rich McMurray, rector of St. John's Anglican Church, Rockwood, is delighted with the re-election of his two lady wardens. Starting her second year is Betty-Lou Clark, Rector's Warden, (left). A veteran of four years and first lady elected to the post of People's Warden is Ivy Ritcheil on the right.

Eden Mills

Jennings show trip slides

by Mrs. W. MacDougall
Sincere condolences are extended to John and Irene Turner in their bereavement of John's father.
The friendly Seniors met last Wednesday afternoon. The president welcomed Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Burrows as new members Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jennings delighted everyone with the showing of their slides taken on their recent trip to Australia and New Zealand.
Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Bell and family have returned from a recent trip to England for a stay with Rodney's parents and a visit with Ana Maria's father.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rinehart's party, who attended the Eastern Star Dance in Guelph, were Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Blacklock, of Burlington; Mr. and Mrs. Mansel Lowrie and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Link.
Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Tolton were guests of honour at a lovely 25th wedding anniversary party hosted for them by their family, Kim, Jim, Janet and Brent. Over 300 guests gathered at Rockmosa Hall to congratulate this couple. Art Gibson was master of ceremonies for the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Vince Montgomery entertained on piano and banjo and the old time music of Roland Hare on violin was much enjoyed. Best wishes to Mel and Fran for many future years of health and happiness.

The United Church Women held their January meeting in the Sunday School room with Mrs. Lorna Tomlinson as hostess. Mrs. Betty Snow opened the meeting with a reading and scripture was read by Mrs. Rene Battie. The devotional was given by Mrs. Freda Thompson on New Year's Resolutions. Rev. Russell Finlay installed the new officers. Mrs. Mabel Parker presided over the business and a luncheon is planned for the February 6 at noon hour in the hall. Plans were also made to cater to the Acton school teachers' luncheon today (Wednesday). The meeting was closed with a benediction written by Jean Little and refreshments were served by Mrs. Jean James and the hostess. A gift was given to the retiring president, Mrs. Betty Snow, for her faithful work. Courtesies were extended by Mrs. Lorne Tomlinson. The Eden Mills United Church held their annual meeting with Rev. R. Finlay presiding and Ed Parker as secretary. The officers elected are Howard James, Clerk of Session; Elmer Millson, Ed Parker, Ralph Thompson, Mrs. Lorna Tomlinson and Mrs. Betty Snow as elders. Ben Saulnier, Elwood Snow, Rodney Blair and Mrs. Ruth Millson as stewards. Mrs. Holly Saulnier is UCW representative and Mrs. Freda Thompson is Missionary and Service secretary. The organist is Miss Lorie Early and Sunday School superintendent is Mrs. Lorna Tomlinson. Howard James and Ed Parker are the auditors.

Ospringle

Guides perform play

by Doris Fines
The Ospringle Guides had a busy month in December. They entertained the Eden Mills Guides by performing a skit, demonstrating how Christmas is celebrated in Poland, England, Sweden and Holland. They made a return visit to Eden Mills where they celebrated a Mexican Christmas.
The Guides went caroling at Maple View Lodge, Acton. The girls had baked cookies, and made little gifts which they presented to the senior citizens at the Lodge.
The Guide meetings have commenced again since Christmas, with five new Guides coming up, making a total of 18, and they are looking forward to an interesting season.
Just a little reminder of the euchre to be held in the basement of Knox Presbyterian Church this Saturday at 8 p.m. Prizes and refreshments are guaranteed.
The election of officers was held at the January meeting of the Ospringle Ladies Aid. The results were—Mrs. Ward Bruce, vice president—Mrs. Barry Clarke, treasurer—Mrs. Henry Pankratz, secretary—Mrs. George Lang, pianist—

Mrs. Gordon Aitken, and card convener, Mrs. Vernon Stewart. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Lang.
Mrs. Ralph Sinclair opened the meeting with a reading—'Travellers Guide to Heaven.'
Mrs. Stewart led the Devotional. She read two articles—'Take Time' and 'A Testimony of Faith', with reference to Phillipians 3:13. The ladies all took part in reading the third chapter of Phillipians. Mrs. Stewart followed this with prayer.

Two hymns were sung 'O Master Let Me Walk With Thee' and 'What a Friend We Have in Jesus.' Then Mrs. Sinclair, in charge of the study, guided the ladies in a quick overlook of events in the book of Matthew.

Limehouse

Enroll Guides, Pathfinders in candlelight ceremony

by Barb Haddon
The 1st Limehouse Guides and Pathfinders took part in a beautiful candlelight ceremony at enrollment on January 8, several parents were present and all of the Pathfinder fathers took part in the ceremony.

The following girls were enrolled: Linda Thompson, Kendal Batchelor, Inger Harbrow, Lori Little, Susan Brown, Cathy Boyle, Margaret Olah, Sherry Margaret and Claudia Kraus. Every girl received her enrolment pin, and bronze badge for Homemaking. Linda Thompson received her silver badge for Homemaking, Cathy Boyle her one year pin, and Kendal, Inger, Susan and Margaret received their five year pins. Pathfinder leader Marnie Willis officiated, and acting guide leader Marie Brown continued on with the Guide enrolment pins, after repeating the Guide law and promise. Heather Brown received her three year pin, and Lesley Case received her one year pin.

Marie Brown has generously offered to continue as acting guide leader, but we are still hoping someone will come forward and take over this position. If you wish to assist in any way, please call Marie at 877-2123.

by Mrs. A.W. Henton
The annual meeting of Limehouse Presbyterian church was held Wednesday evening. Reports showed all departments ended the year in good shape. Four members were lost by death and four joined the congregation during the year making membership still 57. Mrs. Walter Linham, Wilfred Kirkwood and Lloyd McEnery were elected to the session in May.

Mr. and Mrs. T.N. Anderson have returned from a holiday on Merritt Island and St. Petersburg, Florida.
Limehouse Beavers had fun last weekend when 21 of them, plus four leaders, attended the district winter carnival held at Mountsberg.

Dublin W.I.

Hear foreign affairs talk

Introduced by Mrs. C.M. Davidson, Convener of Citizenship and World Affairs, Fred New, of Acton, was the guest speaker at the meeting of the Dublin Women's Institute Thursday evening. His address was on "Canada and Foreign Relations," using three subtitles, "How I see Canada," "What others think of Canada" and "Foreign relations relative to Canada." Very knowledgeable and supported with many facts and figures, Mr. New gave a very interesting and informative address and was listened to closely by the ladies. Mrs. M. Hunter thanked him for his good talk.

Hostess for the meeting of 25 ladies was Mrs. M. McCullough, Acton, with Mrs. G.W. Lasby, president, presiding.
A sheet of correspondence was read by the secretary, Mrs. K. Smith. It was decided to support the Burlington Heritage Foundation in naming certain places in Hallow as "Heritage sites."

The 1980 Officers' Conference will be held in Waterloo University April 29 to May 1 and Mrs. H. Besley will attend as a delegate.
A meeting was held at the home of Mrs. C. Armstrong Monday for those who attended classes on "Indoor Gardening." This is preparatory to Summer Day, being held on January 28, at Hillcrest United Church, Trafalgar Road at 2 p.m.
