

Holy Cross captures final

Georgetown's Holy Cross defeated Milton's Holy Rosary twice to take the boys' basketball title at an invitational separate school tournament Saturday at Holy Rosary.

Holy Cross emerged from the double knockout style tourney with a perfect 3-0 record. Holy Rosary just only to Holy Cross having defeated Milton's St. Peter's twice to advance to the championship game.

Acton's St. Joseph school which hasn't a gym yet and has been practicing out of the local YMCA was edged 14-6 by Holy Cross and defeated 32-5 by St. Peter's.

Diane Stone connected for 10 points to pace Holy Cross to a 13-10 victory over Holy Rosary in the championship game of the Holy Rosary Invitational Girls Basketball tournament Saturday at Holy Rosary School, Milton.

In the final game, Marlene Boughton and Anna Burra led Milton's Holy Rosary with four points apiece.

The tourney drew four schools in what acts as a prep tournament for the regular season which begins next week.

In preliminary games, Holy Rosary defeated St. Paul's 18-13, with Anna Burra scoring six points, and Acton's St. Joseph's school by an 18-2 margin. Liz Cunniff and Anna Burra hit for six points apiece in the Acton contest while Paula DePaz scored St. Joseph's lone basket.

Holy Cross had some trouble in the earlier games, losing an 18-16 heartbreaker in overtime to St. Paul's before slipping by St. Joseph's 7-2. Diane Stone scored four points for Holy Cross while Paula DePaz again scored Acton's single basket.

Atom Moms take one goal lead

Acton Minor Hockey Moms shutout Fergus 3-0 in the first game of their best of five playoff series, Sunday in Fergus.

Ken Woychesko and Carl Yaroschak scored the markers for Acton. Assists went to John Van Dam and Frank Katsilieras.

Scott Williams earned the shutout in the Moms' net, making some key saves in the first period.

Earlier, in an exhibition game in Acton last Wednesday they topped Kitchener Queensmount 2-0. Williams was in net for the shutout as well as Evan Hayter. Katsilieras and Craig Cadenhead netted goals for the Moms, with Van Dam and Yaroschak picking up assists.

They finished their regular hockey season with a three to zip triumph at New Hamburg, January 15.

Honors for the shutout went to Hayter and Williams. Acton sharpshooters were Rob Murray, Yaroschak and Cadenhead.

Going to the wire against Orangeville in a earlier contest, the Moms fended off a rally and managed a three-goal draw.

Yaroschak counted for two Acton goals with assists from Greg Leatherland. Ken Woychesko opened the scoring for Acton in the first period on an unassisted effort. Georgetown trimmed Acton 6-2 in a post-season encounter in the community centre last Wednesday.

Yaroschak scored both goals; the first from Brent Wedge and Leatherland

Softball seminar

After very rewarding results from last year's seminar, the Ontario Amateur Softball Association in co-operation with Softball Ontario are holding another open convention.

The date is February 15-17 at the Conestoga Inn in Kitchener, Ontario.

This year representatives are expected from all over the province to discuss the five Ontario championship series now offered, as well as provincial tournaments for 1980.

With the enthusiasm and inquiries Softball Ontario's office is receiving, it's estimate at more than 1,000 slowpitch teams will be active in Ontario this year.

Riders hold races — on ice

The Halton Off-Road Riders Association is sponsoring a motorcycle ice-racing grand prix Saturday at the Orangeville Reservoir starting at noon.

Most of Canada's best racers will be competing for $1,500 in prize money. Bikes and riders are divided into displacement and skill classes with money or trophies awarded to the first three finishers in each class.

The special sidecar class is added as a special bonus.

Admission to the Conservation area is $3 per person, children under 12 $1.50 and parking is $1.

Acton area resident John Cornwell is currently holding fourth spot with 15 points in the open expert class, after the first round of the Canadian Motorcycle Association Ice Race Nationals. He races a 'Trackmaster.'
