Acton curling capers

by Karen Archibald

Friday 9-11: Still holding the lead is Willa Hewitt's rink now being skipped by Crawford Caswell. It's going to be a close race because there are the other rinks right on Willa's heels with eight wins each to their credit. The skips of these determined rinks are Fred Archibald, Bill Cripps and Carl Brundle respectively.

Friday 7-9: Way out in the lead is Ken Phillips' rink of Bobbie Phillips and Roger and Marion Wilson with eleven wins to date. Watch out behind you because John Mintern's rink is sliding up close. Out of town bonspiels: Representing the Acton club in the men's Intermediate Divisional Play-downs held at the North Halton club Feb. 23 and 24 was Ken Phillips' rink of Fred Archibald, Brian Moore and Bruce McArthur. The team made an excellent showing for the club winning three of their four games. A Milton rink took the finals in the last end of play against our club. Good curling fellows—we're proud of you.

must have been some weekend girls! By the way Marylin, what's this about your new red nail polish matching Donna's eyes? Two weeks ago Anne Moore's rink of Kae Hansen, Phyllis Patriek and Ina Melton attended a two day bonspiel in Stratford. The girls brought home the Mutual Life Trophy as a souvenir for their victory in the second event. These girls have been attending this particular 'spiel for nine years now. To date, this is their first trophy, although they've managed to bring home some nice prizes before. Nice work girls.

Curling up a storm at St. Mary's Curling Club Saturday, Feb. 23, Carl Brundle's rink of Marg Brundle, Al Murphy and Jean Murphy took top honours in the Standard Products Annual Bonspiel between Stratford and Georgetown Divisions. The rink brought home the Walter Nagorsen Trophy. Good curling folks.
