Vankesteren nets five

Rene Vankesteren kept the Alton Melsaac Concrete Construction Novices alive, with a superb five-goal performance in game three of their best-of-five series against Fergus Saturday.

Vankesteren scored all five of Acton goal's in the 5-4 victory.

The game was a must-win match for the novices, which meet Fergus in the fourth game Saturday at the Community Centre.

Right-winger Steve Robertson also played a strong game, getting two assists.

Coach Ron Salmon says the entire team gave it their best effort, and at times looked like atoms in their puck passing skills. He added they played sound positional hockey, which was the game for them. Philip Landriault and Kevin Usher provided the team with sound goaltending as well.

Fergus opened the scoring with a goal less than a minute into the game. Mark Alviano scored from Darrin Manely.

Vankesteren replied with his first marker at 4:46, from Steve Robertson.

Fergus went ahead again with two goals by Ronnie Ashley and Chris Discoll, before Vankesteren connected on his second marker at 8:45. He ended the period 3-2.

Vankesteren scored two to Fergus' one goal in the middle stanza, and potted the lone third-period goal—an unassisted marker at 1:49 to give Acton the victory. Sean Sears and Mike Brower picked up assists on the third goal.
