Bants tune with tourney

The Acton Rotary Club Minor bantams tuned up for the championship round of the Waterloo-Wellington league with an exhibition game and tournament in Harrison. The bantams nipped

Preston 3-2 in the exhibition match March 11. Vince Danagher, Randy Coverdale, and Jim Richard netted the three Acton goals. Assists went to Rick Dodds, Lornezo Cliviero and Coverdale. In the Harrison tournament March 15, Acton dumped Dixie 4-1 in the first game, but lost to Midland 5-3 in the second match.

Dave Thompson of Hellers is about to slip another goal past Blow Press goalie Robin Inscoc in Sunday's upset at the Community Centre. Hellers defeated Blow Press to tie the best of three series one game apiece in Industrial hockey finals.

Lions caged 5-4

The Acton Lions Pee-wees came back from a 3-0 deficit but fell short of capturing a victory in the second game of the Waterloo-Wellington league finals against Fergus last weekend. Fergus nipped the Lions 5-4. The series is now tied one game apiece. Fergus opened the scoring on two goals in the first period and a third at 2:15 in the second.

Two minutes later Mike Hudson connected on passes from David Thomas and Tony Van Dam to put Acton on the scoreboard. Brad O'Neill potted the second Acton goal at 8:14 from Hudson and Heath Norton. Sandy Waites waited until the three minute mark of the third period to score the third marker and tie the game. Hudson and Thomas earned assists on the goal. However Fergus went ahead again 50 seconds later to make it 4-3. Thomas tied it at 5:21 for Acton but Fergus clinched the victory at 8:09 to end the game 5-4. The Lions refused to give up during the game, although Fergus had nabbed the lead three times. The clock ran out before the peewees could connect for the equalizer. The next game in the best-of-five series is tonight (Wednesday), at the Community Centre. The Lions competed in the Goderich tournament as part of Young Canada Week. They suffered a 4-0 setback to Flamboro in the first match and fell to Hespeler 4-1 in the second.
