Sign of tough times as evictions double

Although high interest rates haven't created an upsurge of people leaving Halton homes, the numbers receiving eviction notices has doubled in the first three months of 1980 compared with the same period last year, according to Hulton Sheriff Mac Sprowl.

"For the judicial district of Halton, with a total population of 240,000 bers of writ of possession issued is not a healthy sign," the Sheriff said. The writ of possession issued not only include homeowners unable to mortgage payments but also renters under the Landlord and Tenant Act. The majority of the notices are foreclosures but involving renters, said
