

Jeanette Hisaki (front) and her partner George Williams lie in wait for the next serve during the Acton badminton club's tournament against Erin Wednesday at Acton High School. Hisaki and Williams won the game over Chris Jones and Irene Nickle.

Tourney ends year

The Acton Badminton Club tied Erin 16-16 last Wednesday at a meet at Acton High School.

The Acton Ladies' doubles team of Sue Bullock, Ann Entwistle, Maureen Gerth, Jeanette Hisaki, Lou Hurley and Henrietta Mason put on a show, winning five games to two.

The men's team of Mike Bullock, Mike Morris, Vic Morris, Das Sydney, Ray Vorne and George Williams did not do as well, losing their doubles games five to two.

In the mixed doubles both teams won nine games each.

Erin fielded a much stronger team than the last time the two clubs met.

Wednesday's meet was the last home tournament of the season. The Badminton Club would like to thank AHS for the use of their gymnasium for the four home tournaments held this season.

Curlers at Nationals

And a good time had by all

by Diana Waltmann
The Ontario Senior Ladies' champions returned home Saturday after a successful week at the Canadian Curling Championships in Fredericton, New Brunswick.

They won three games out of 10, over British Columbia (who were the eventual champions), P.E.I. and the Yukon, and ended in sixth spot.

But success is not measured in victories alone. On no!

Lucille Cooksley from

Rockwood, skip Mary Ritchie, Marjorie Hawchin and Noreen Wagner measure their success by how much of a good time they had.

And they had a blast. "It was a terrible flight," said Mrs. Cooksley. "It took us 19 hours to get there."

"But we had a fabulous time. A great time. They killed us with kindness. The weather was rather damp all week, with flooding on Tuesday. They arrived in time for Saturday's reception, opening ceremonies and first draw.

Sunday there was more luncheons to attend, a City Hall reception on Monday, another luncheon, another reception, more lunch on Tuesday and some sightseeing despite the floods. Wednesday there was another luncheon with entertainment, Thursday there was the coffee party at the Lieutenant Governor Hedard and Madame Robichard's house and Friday after the tie-breaker, there were the closing ceremonies, a reception and a victory banquet hosted by the province.

Oh yes, remembers Mrs. Cooksley, and they curled too. Two games a day, in fact.

It was a good way to exchange pins.

"I was pleased with my curling, though," she adds. "I wasn't nervous at all."

The whole experience made everything worthwhile, she said. So much so that she can hardly wait for next year. "The championships will be held in Winnipeg next year. I'd love to go."

That's enough to put fear in the hearts of any senior lady curler in Ontario who has similar aspirations.
