McKenzie-Smith travelled to the finals of the annual public school hockey tournament last week at the community centre. But there they ran into a tough W.I. Dick team and lost the championship 3-1. McKenzie-Smith (dark sweaters) create all sorts of havoc around W.I. Dick nets.

Dazzling saves the real McCoy

Duane McCoy, goaltender for the McKenzie-Smith hockey team made a name for himself at the annual public school shanny tournament last Wednesday at the Community Centre.

His team reached the championships against Milton's W.I. Dick after picking up seven points in the three-game tournament.

McCoy was outstanding in the Acton nets for all the games. McKenzie-Smith took the first match against Stewarttown 4-2, tied W.I. Dick 2-2 in their second contest and also tied Centennial School from Georgetown 2-2 in the third game.

After that game they returned to the ice to meet W.I. Dick, who had taken a similar route to the championships and accumulated eight points.

But McKenzie-Smith, despite their large crowd support, couldn't get the right breaks. The third Milton marker was scored on an empty net.

Milton's Mark Haskett was awarded the MVP for the offence while McCoy was named top defensive player. He also picked up most improved goaltender trophy in Saturday's Day of Champions for the Whalers.

In other matches, Centennial fell to W.I. Dick 2-1, then doubled Stewarttown 4-2. Stewarttown had no better luck against W.I. Dick in their match losing 7-4.

W.I. Dick landed in first place with 11 points, McKenzie-Smith came second with eight points, Centennial was third with six and Stewarttown finished last with three points.

On lanes one and two the Whalers took two games but the Shrimp came back and took one game and totals. On three and four the Cyclones grabbed 30 games and totals and left the tough Sharks with one game. On five and six the Porpoises also took two games and totals and left the Cubs with one point.
